

September 29, 2014

This morning we will enjoy a wonderful hot breakfast at the hotel before making our way to treasured Billy Graham Library. This 40,000 square foot experience allows us to discover the life and legacy of America's pastor showing us the journey from humble farm boy to an international ambassador of God's love. You will receive a voucher for a meal at the Graham Brothers Dairy Bar for lunch. You can also enjoy a walk through the Prayer Garden and browse Ruth's Attic Bookstore. After a rich time, we will board the bus and make our way to our destination for the evening, the Holiday Inn Express in Ashland, KY, 606-929-1720.

September 30, 2014

We are now officially making our way back toward home. We will fill up with breakfast at the hotel this morning. Our journey today will take us to the Creation Museum in Petersburg, KY. Upon arrival, we will enjoy a quaint lunch at the museum. After which, we will have the opportunity to tour the state-of-the-art 70,000 square foot museum bringing the pages of the Bible to life, casting its characters and animals in dynamic form and placing them in familiar settings such as Adam and Eve live in the Garden of Eden. Also, there are 160 inspiring exhibits, theatre presentations and exhibits outside declaring God's magnificent creation. Prepare to be amazed by God's artistry and design! We will then occupy the coach once again making our way to the Drury Inn, 217-398-0030, in Champaign, IL, for the evening.

October 1, 2014

After another marvelous breakfast, we will hit the road. Our travels today will take us to the Amana Colonies in Iowa. After a few hours on the bus, we will arrive at the Ox Yoke Restaurant for a family style meal sure to make your tastebuds dance. We will then take a tour of the Colonies visiting some of the stores and attractions that reflect the rich heritage of this community. With hundreds of years of history, it is interesting to note that the colonies were formed by German immigrants looking for religious freedom. Amana actually means "remain true" taken from the Song of Solomon....their prayer was to remain true/faithful to their Lord. We will then make our way to our final hotel stay of the tour. We will be residing tonight in the AmericInn, 641-357-8954, in Clear Lake, IA.

October 2, 2014

This will be our last morning together. We will have breakfast at the hotel and will board the coach to begin our trek home. We will sit back, relax and reflect on all of the delightful memories and moments of spiritual inspiration, trusting the memories and the newfound friendships of this special tour will linger

National Quartet Convention Tour : 2014

with Larry & Gloria Lundstrom

LeConte Center
Pigeon Forge, TN

September 23 - October 2

Tour Details:

September 23, 2014

Today we begin our journey to the National Quartet Convention in Pigeon Forge, TN. We will be leaving from Sisseton, SD, with pick up spots in Watertown, SD, and then heading over to the Minneapolis area. We will stop at a quaint restaurant in Chaska, MN, called Cuzzy's Brickhouse Restaurant for lunch. We will continue on our way to Portage, WI. Our first day of traveling will be spent getting acquainted with one another, as we make our way to the Comfort Inn & Suites, 608-745-4717, in Portage, WI, for the night.

September 24, 2014

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, we will nestle in for a good trip. We will stop for a quick lunch (on our own) along the way. As we make our way through Illinois and into Indiana, we will enjoy the scenery before arriving in Montgomery, IN. On our way, we may even see some Amish farms in this part of Indiana. We will finally arrive at the Gasthof Amish Village where we will have the opportunity to browse and shop through their bakery and gift shops. After stretching our legs for a while, we will enjoy an Amish meal in the restaurant featuring many homemade Amish favorites. With our tummies full, we will arrive at the Holiday Inn Express, 812-482-3344, in Jasper, IN for a good nights' rest.

*PLEASE NOTE: Items in color are included in the tour price.

September 25, 2014

We will enjoy a splendid breakfast at the hotel giving us a great start to our day. We will begin today's journey making our way into Kentucky, passing through Louisville. Our lunch stop will be a little unique as we will be dining at the original Kentucky Fried Chicken, the vision of Colonel Sanders, in Corbin, KY. After lunch, we will take a few minutes to tour the birthplace/museum before jumping on the coach once again. Our next stop is Pigeon Forge, TN, the Music Road Inn, 865-429-7700, where we will be spending the next few days! After a brief time to settle ourselves in, we'll be on our way to the National Quartet Convention for the evening.

September 26, 2014

You will have the opportunity to rest up a little bit this morning if you choose. You can enjoy the deluxe breakfast at the hotel. You will have the option to go across the street to take in a bible study, chapel with The Hoppers and Regional Artist Showcase or go to the LeConte Center for a Series of Showcases including Dr. David Jeremiah and the NQC Music Awards. You can also choose to use the trolley to visit various areas in Pigeon Forge. As a group in the late afternoon, we will return for music and melodies lasting into the night at the National Quartet Convention.

September 27, 2014

Today will look much like the day before. You can enjoy the deluxe breakfast at the hotel. Again, you will have the option to go across the street to take in a bible study, chapel with The Kingdom Heirs and Regional Artist Showcase or go to the LeConte Center for a Series of Showcases including the Cathedrals Family Reunion and the Kingdom Heirs & Triumphant – Full Circle where these two groups will join together for a very special showcase. You can also choose to use the trolley to visit various areas in Pigeon Forge. After a full afternoon, you will be ready and geared up for this final night of celebration at the National Quartet Convention that will surely encourage, uplift and challenge you leaving you with lasting memories.

September 28, 2014

We will have a later morning this day to allow us some rest after all the late nights and fun. After another great breakfast at the hotel, we will board the coach for our next stop which will be the Biltmore Estate in Asheville, NC. Upon arrival and check in, we will visit the Antler Hill Village first on this 8,000 acre luxury getaway built by George Vanderbilt. We will enjoy a quick lunch from the Smoke House where we will sample some good Carolina barbeque. After browsing the Barn in Antler Hill Village – once the social and work center for these families – alive again with blacksmiths, woodworkers, and other craft demonstrations and an old-fashioned Mercantile shop offering Appalachian crafts, dry goods, and candy, we will make our way up to the 250 room Chateau for a tour of this magnificent architecture. If time allows, we will also tour the beautiful gardens including the Italian Garden and Rose Garden. This tour does require walking so wear comfortable shoes. To end the night, the bus will bring us to Wingate Inn, 704-523-3366, in Charlotte, NC.
