THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 12, 2015

We are called by God to be His children, His apostles, witnesses to His ways of life.
We are called to build a Kingdom —His, not ours. He is not a God Who calls us and watches, uninvolved, to see what happens. He calls us to work with Him, side by side, in the Kingdom.
He is truly with us as we respond.

STEWARDSHIP: A Way of Life

Your Time, Talent and Treasure are God's Gifts to you.

Stewardship Reflection

Most scholars are of the opinion that St. Paul wrote his letter to the Ephesians while he was imprisoned in Rome. Those who study Sacred Scripture find this letter different from most of Paul's letters, as rather than addressing particular problems which may have arisen in a Christian community established by Paul, it develops a theology, an explanation of what it means to be a Christian.

At the end of this particular reading, Paul makes reference to two important aspects of our faith and of our beliefs. St. Paul tells us that we have "believed in him (Jesus)" and that we are "sealed" with the promised Holy Spirit. Believing in Jesus, in His promises, in His redemption of us, is at the core of everything we do. This trust, this belief, is what allows us to take the steps needed to follow Him, to be His disciple, and to practice a stewardship way of living.

Note that we believe first, however, and then we are sealed. Yes, we are sealed at Baptism and at Confirmation as those represent our promises to the Lord. We do not need some assurance from God as to His good graces. By believing, by having faith and trust, we are able to be Christ's representative. It is worth recalling and repeating that well-known quote from St. Thomas Aquinas: "To one who has faith, no explanation is necessary; to one without faith, no explanation is possible."

CATHOLIC CHARITIES SOUTHWESTERN OHIO SERVICES

People pursue counseling for a variety of reasons such as major life events or help in managing issues like depression. Most therapy clients are ordinary people struggling with common issues. Whatever the reason, it takes courage to attend therapy, and it takes dedication to see it through. Together, the client and the therapist determine the goals of therapy. Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio has therapist in several locations. Call our central intake at 513-489-8898 or go online at ccswoh.org/services/counseling to start the healing.

TAKING BACK MARRIAGE FOR OUR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Both the family and the Church are under attack by an ideology based on a false understanding of what it means to be human. Many people, especially the young, are rejecting Church teaching on love, sexuality and marriage because they are having difficulty reconciling it with proposals from the culture that sound more reasonable. The challenge for priests, lay leaders, teachers and parents is how to present Church teachings in ways that reveal their truth and beauty in culture that bases decisions about what is true and good on sentiment and emotions.

William B May, author of Getting the Marriage Conversation Right, will offer a fresh perspective about issues related to marriage and family and will discuss the need for a new positive "Marriage Reality Movement" for the public on Sunday, July 19, 2015 from 7-8:30pm at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary Bartlett Center, 6616 Beechmont Avenue, Cincinnati.

This will be an important discussion for those concerned how to protect their children from adopting distorted concepts of love and marriage that affect the choice they make in their own lives and for those concerned about the societal consequences of the breakdown of marriage.

A Morning with Bill May for Marriage Ministers

Join us at Our Lady of Sorrows (Monroe) Monday, July 20 from 9:30 - noon. The title of the presentation is "Revealing the Truth about Marriage: A Pastoral and Social Justice Approach".

Participants will have the opportunity to meet in small groups to discuss how they might put what they hear into action. This event is being sponsored by the Family and Respect Life Office, Office of Priestly Formation and Permanent Diaconate Office

For more information contact the Family and Respect Life Office at (513) 421-3131 ext. 2653 or farlocincinnati@catholiccincinnati.org.
