THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 30, 2017

Today we read the story of the two disciples who did not recognize Jesus until they invited Him to stay with them— They recognize Him in the breaking of the bread. We are asked to see Christ at Holy Mass and then, find Him in others by breaking bread with them.

STEWARDSHIP: A Way of Life

Your Time, Talent and Treasure are God's Gifts to you.

Stewardship Reflection

Today's Gospel Reading recounts Jesus' appearance to two disciples who were on the road to Emmaus. In various scriptural passages, there are 12 accounts of Jesus appearing in the flesh, a few times to just one person, but once to 500 people. What is interesting about today's account is the two, although evidently familiar with the Lord, do not recognize Him.

This is a challenge for us today as well. St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa) once wrote, "I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself, this is hungry Jesus; I must feed him. This is sick Jesus. This one has leprosy or gangrene; I must wash him and tend to him. I serve because I love Jesus." That should be our motivation for serving, for being a disciple, for practicing stewardship.

Like the two disciples going to Emmaus we must be alert and prepared to see Jesus in places we least imagine Him. Stewardship is, of course, a two-sided perspective. Not only do we need to seek and search for Jesus in others and then serve, but also others need to see and recognize Jesus in us.

If we properly live out our faith, we, too, may experience the sense of joy and ecstasy the two disciples found in today's Gospel: "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened Scriptures to us?" Jesus speaks to us every day, but we must learn to listen.

TAKE TRAVELING CHALICE HOME TO PRAY FOR VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD

The Traveling Chalice will be handed to Russ and Cassie May at the 10:30am Holy Mass, on Sunday, April 30. Sue and Stan Schumacher will receive it on Saturday, May 6.

When to return the chalice?

By Saturday, afternoon before the 5:30pm Mass, you can leave it in the Sacristy, or at the Sacristy door if it's locked.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION

This weekend we are taking up The Catholic Relief Services Collection to respond to JESUS IN DISGUISE. This collection helps six Catholic agencies to provide relief and support to struggling communities and to work towards peace and reconciliation among our marginalized brothers and sisters here and around the world. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection.

ATTENTION:

Our envelope boxes do not have an envelope designated for CRSC -2017 so the envelopes for this collection were put on the pews last weekend. If you cannot find an empty envelope you can still contribute by specifying it on your check. Thanks for your generosity.

SEWING MACHINES NEEDED

A recent arrival from the Central African Republic started sewing class in April. As soon as the class began, he whipped out some fabric and began marking a pattern to sew himself a pair of pants. After he finished cutting the material for the pants he measured and cut pieces of fabric to make a dress for a woman who is also taking the sewing class. Others would like a chance to practice their skills. If you have a sewing machine you would like to donate to Catholic Charities please contact Rachel Wiers at rwiers@ccswoh.org

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the month of May to honor Mary, Mother of God. Not just a day in May, mind you, but the entire month. This idea can be traced back to baroque times. Special devotions were organized on each day throughout the month, as well as the long standing tradition of crowning the statue of Mary.

May is a reminder to the faithful to strive to imitate our Blessed Mother’s virtues in our own lives. Mary altars and crowning aren’t just “church” things. We can and should be doing the same in our homes. When we echo the customs and traditions of the Church in our homes—the domestic churches—we participate more fully in the life of the Church.

If you haven’t already, we encourage you to erect a prayer corner in your home. No matter how fancy or simple it is. The main point is that it is a place designated for God, for spending time with Him. Just as you need proper atmosphere to sleep, you also need proper atmosphere to pray. Make Mary a spot in your prayer corner especially for May, you can give her an actual crown or spiritual crown.

We want to honor Mary not because it’s a long-standing tradition in the Church, although it is. Not because there are many special graces connected to it, although there are. No, do it because Mary is your Mother, my mother, everyone’s mother—and because she cares for all of us day-in-day-out without fail, interceding for us in even the tiniest matters.

PRAY FOR THE SICK

Lord Jesus, You are the Divine Physician, we place all of our sick under your loving care. Please restore them physically and spiritually. In Your Most Holy Will, and in the name of all, together with Our Sweet Mother and all the angels and saints, we intercede in a special way for:

FIRST COMMUNION CHILDREN

The second grade children will have a JESUS DAY retreat on Saturday, May 6 from 9 :00am to 12:30pm.

On Sunday, May 7 they will receive their First Holy Communion at the 10:30 Holy Mass. They will also be enrolled in scapular.

Let us ask the Sacred Heart of Jesus to protect them, strengthen their faith, increase their love for Him, and endow them with all the virtues that will make them worthy to receive Jesus in Holy Communion.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

It will be observed on Sunday, May 7th, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest." Please pray for:

- the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- keep your parish priests in your prayers throughout the week
- encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- pray a rosary for more young men and women to respond to God’s call

Is your marriage hurting in any way? Has your marriage grown cold, distant, unloving or uncaring? Then please consider Retrouvaille—a program designed to help heal and renew marriages.
