PENTECOST SUNDAY

May 20, 2018

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Wisdom

Knowledge

Counsel

Fortitude

Piety

Understanding

Fear of the Lord

Though shared in by many, The Holy Spirit remains unchanged; His self-giving is no loss to Himself.

Like the sunshine, which permeates all the atmosphere, spreading over land and sea and yet is enjoyed by each person as though it were for him alone, so The Spirit pours forth His Grace in full measure—sufficient for all, and yet is present as though exclusively to everyone who can receive.

St Basil, the Great

STEWARDSHIP: A Way of Life

Your Time, Talent and Treasure

Stewardship Reflection

Today is Pentecost Sunday, the 50th day after Easter (counting both Easter Sunday and today). Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." As we hear in Holy Scripture, today is the day that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' followers, and with that Jesus' mission on earth was completed.

Jesus calls His followers and literally all of us to be missionaries. The Latin root word for "missionary" is derived from the original Greek word apostolos, which meant "one sent forth." Obviously, we get the word "apostle" from that as well. It is further defined as one who attempts to persuade or convert. It involves the "apostle" or "disciple" working outside of the community.

When Jesus spoke these words, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." That includes each and every one of us. We, too, are sent. Many times we have reiterated that being sent means that we live out our Catholic faith in everything we do. That is the best way to evangelize, to let those around us know what it means to be a Christian and a follower of Christ and His disciple.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops made the following statement about what it means to evangelize: "Here, there are two elements of evangelization at work: 1. Witness, which is the simple living out of the faith; 2. Sharing, which is spreading the Good News of Jesus." Do we follow the admonitions given us by the Lord? Are we examples of what it means to be a Catholic and Christian? Do we truly share the Good News?

ADOPT A SEMINARIAN

For those who remember, in 2012 Holy Name offered the apostolate of Spiritual Motherhood in order to encourage women to become a Spiritual Mother by adopting one priest or seminarian. The Archdiocese is now launching this apostolate parish wide. There will be a box on a table, at the side-back entrance, with 10 prayer card packets, each one with picture of a seminarian for those interested and/or who did not participate back in 2012. If you decide to adopt, there will be a poster for you to sign your name and the personal commitment card (in the packet) as your testimony and commitment. Keep the card.

Prayer for priests and seminarians have been proven to be effective throughout the history of the Church and we would like the women of the parish to consider signing their name on the poster and taking one of the 10 packets of material to begin praying for a future priest. For more information about this apostolate, please visit cincinnativocations.org/spiritual-motherhood-of-priests.

Central Pastry Shop is looking to hire a couple of people. We take this opportunity to thank Vera for her generosity in providing donuts for our different social events. If you are looking for a job, call her at 423-4431.
