YOUTH NEWS
This year we will be sending 10 youth and 3 adults to the National Catholic Youth Conference in Indianapolis. Please keep them in your prayers as we prepare for an experience of spiritual growth with over 20,000 other young people. Beginning October 7th & 8th a Basket Raffle will be held after each Mass for 3 weeks. The proceeds from the raffle will help families with the cost incurred to send their teens. Tickets will cost $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00. As always we thank you for your support of our awesome young people." STEWARDSHIP: A Way of Life

Stewardship Reflection

St. Paul offers a formula for living the way we are supposed to live as Christians in the Second Reading. Paul writes, “Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves.” Doing that is a challenge for most all of us. Yet, that is one of the secrets to being a good steward and living as Christ wants us to live.

To truly live that way requires a dramatic conversion. All of us know people who are so self-centered that they often are not even aware that they are totally unwilling to compromise or to even recognize the value of those around them. Achieving this kind of self awareness, of what kind of a person we are, is a significant step on our faith and life journeys.

Screenwriter and playwright William Nicholson once wrote, “God does not necessarily want us to be happy. He wants us to be lovable, worthy of love, able to be loved by Him. What makes people hard to love? It is called selfishness. Selfish people are hard to love, because so little love comes out of them.”

That is our challenge, to love others in such a way that we become lovable as well. Christ told us over and over that the secret to being His disciple and the secret to being a good steward is to “Love your neighbor.” That is how to be the kind of person Paul calls us to be as well.

TAKE TRAVELING CHALICE HOME TO PRAY FOR VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD

The following families will receive the Traveling Chalice and keep it for 2 weeks:
Grace and Sam Vogelsang, the weeks of Sunday, September 24 and of October 1.
Jose and Leticia Gonzalez, the weeks of Saturday, October 7, and October 14.

When to return the chalice? By Saturday, afternoon before the 5:30pm Mass, you can leave it in the Sacristy, or at the Sacristy door if it’s locked.

Adoration Needs: Could you not spend but one hour with Me? Everyone is welcome at anytime during Exposition, even if you can't take a scheduled hour or be a substitute; but we need to make sure that there are at least two adorers signed up for each hour. If you are interested in signing up for an hour, or be substitute please call the office.

NATIONAL LIFE CHAIN SUNDAY, OCTOBER 1ST.

A Life Chain is where Pro-Lifers simply stand on a sidewalk facing the traffic with a sign saying such as "Adoption the Loving Option", "Abortion Hurts Women", "Jesus Forgives", "Abortion Kills Babies", and silently pray for the conversion of hearts to the Pro Life cause, an end to abortion and the mercy of God that is available to all.

This peaceful, non-confrontational family activity will take place in Hamilton, the Butler County seat of government. The location of the event is at the intersection of High St. and Martin Luther King Blvd from 2-3:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 1st. We will gather at the SW corner of the intersection in front of the Government Services Center for approved signs to use and assignment of sidewalk location.

Call Mike Mignery for further information @ 513 867 1832.

LECTURE BY DR. HOLLY ORDWAY , AUTHOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHRISTIAN IMAGINATION

Wednesday, October 4 at 7:30 pm. Dr. Holly Ordway, professor of English at Houston Baptist University and a convert to the faith, will discuss her journey from atheism to Catholicism. Her story shows what it's like to move from outside the faith to inside, and provides encouragement and insights for those who are involved in apologetics, evangelization, preaching, and teaching. The talk will be held at the Bartlett Pastoral Center on the campus of The Athenaeum/St. Mary's Seminary, 6616 Beechmont Avenue, Cincinnati. All are welcome and admission is free. View live - www.athenaeum.edu I look forward to seeing you at Dr. Ordway's talk! Fr. David Andres, Academic Dean

PROJECT RACHEL

Project Rachel is a Ministry of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati that serves anyone who has experienced a loss of a child due to abortion. There are a variety of ways persons can engage in this ministry for healing from a recent loss or a loss that occurred decades ago: one-on-one conversation with a peer, priest or deacon, consultation with a priest (we can accommodate a need for consulting in Spanish), a day of reflection for anyone who has experienced loss (mother, grandparent, father, sibling, friend, etc.) support groups and retreats for mothers who lost their child due to abortion. Contact Noreen Wendeln or by calling the Project Rachel Help Line at 513-784-0531 for information. All conversations and email are confidential.

PRAY FOR THE SICK

Lord Jesus, You are the Divine Physician, we place all of our sick under your loving care. Please restore them physically and spiritually. In Your Most Holy Will, and in the name of all, together with Our Sweet Mother and all the angels and saints, we intercede in a special way for:

Joan Wagner, Mary Keith, Danny Roell, Anna White, Tom and Carolyn Martin, Jose Gonzalez, Carol Conover, Anna Hunsinger, Joyce Butler, Joe Pollock, Charles Payne, Orville Brown, Donald Ansberry, Thomas Willke, Bill Schaefer, Janet Gerdes, Joe Hankins, Katie Cecil, Joan Zeis, Joe Orth II and Joe Orth senior.

PRO-LIFE SUNDAY

Understanding Conscience. . .Conscience helps us to hear the voice of God: it helps us recognize the truth about God and the truth about how we ought to live. If our conscience isn't well formed, we aren't well-equipped to determine right from wrong. How to form our consciences? pray, participation in the sacraments, learn and know our faith.

To oppose ASSISTED SUICIDE, uncover the dangers. . . Elder abuse is considered a major health problem in the USA. The deadly and dangerous practice of assisted suicide is now legal in 5 states (Oregon, Washington, Vermont, California and Colorado) and the District of Columbia, our nation's capital. Some polls indicate that the public is receptive to the general concept of assisted suicide. But the same poll shows that when the public learns about the dangers of assisted suicide, (i.e the Dangerously Broad Definition of Terminal Illness; Pain is not the Primary Issue) their view shift against the practice.

Catholic Considerations for our earthly passing. We are entrusted by God with the GIFT OF LIVE, and in response, we care for our lives and health in obedience and gratitude to our Creator. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person's incapacity or dependency. Nothing diminishes this unchangeable dignity, or the obligation to protect and care for it. In principle, assisted feeding and hydration should be provided unless it cannot sustain or is unduly burdensome to the patient, or if death is imminent whether it is provided or not.

How to build a CULTURE OF LIFE. . . To understand more fully how to defend and protect human life, we must first consider who we are, at the deepest level. God creates us in His image and likeness, which means we are made to be in loving relationship with Him. The essence of our identity and worth, the source of our dignity, comes from God. He gave us an inherit capacity to become the image of His Son. The world measures our worth by our successes and failures. But nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can reduce the immeasurable worth of our lives. This is how we build a culture of life.
