STEWARDSHIP: A Way of Life

Your Time, Talent and Treasure are God's Gifts to you.
*When you share them,
it is your gift to God*

Stewardship Reflection

The last line of today's Gospel Reading from St. Matthew contains one of the more well known of Jesus' quotes. When asked a bit of a trick question by the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Jesus responds by asking them whose image is on their Roman coins, to which they respond simply "Caesar's."

Jesus' response to their reply is known to most of us, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." The Lord's answer is far more perceptive than we might think, and it gives another message to us, one we must always remember. If we are followers of Christ, and if we work to be His disciple, the Lord might ask us, "Whose image is on your soul?" We have learned in the First Chapter of Genesis that God created us in His image.

The coin may be stamped with Caesar's image, but each of us is stamped with God's image. Thus, Jesus is implying that the coin may be Caesar's but each of us belongs to God. In that regard we should be striving to be all those things to which Jesus called us.

That is in effect what a stewardship way of life is — recognizing that God is in each of us, we are to place ourselves in service to God and to one another. That is what is really meant by "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today is World Mission Sunday - a day that leads us to the heart of our Christian Faith - leads us to mission! Your generosity on World Mission Sunday supports the work of priests, religious and lay leaders, who share our faith with those in most need. The Church is missionary by nature. Through the Church, Christ continues His mission as the Good Samaritan, caring for the bleeding wounds of humanity; and as a Good Shepherd, She is constantly seeking out those who wander along winding paths that lead nowhere. May Mary, Mother of Evangelization, intercede for us so that we can acquire the holy audacity needed to discover new ways to bring the gift of salvation to every person.

Please use the envelopes in the pews marked “World Mission.” Donations received from this appeal are sent to the Archdiocese. Thanks for your generosity.
