

March 25, 2018 • Joseph Part 5

Scripture References

Genesis 37; 39-46; 50 • 1 John 1:9
John 16:33 • Hebrews 12:1-3

- 1) In the story of Joseph, we saw how God used the evil plans of people to accomplish what he wanted to happen.
- 2) We may question God when we struggle with difficult things, but we can still act in faith.
- 3) The first of our marks of spiritual maturity here at GBC is:
A desire to please God.

- 4) The essence of confession is to agree with God that we are sinners.
- 5) The greatest blessing is to be released from this broken world.
- 6) The greatest healing comes when we are released from these broken bodies.
- 7) We have to learn to see things through faith, and it usually takes a lifetime.
- 8) Faith must be cultivated - intentionally nurtured and developed.
- 9) Faith becomes strong as we learn to recognize God's hand in all that happens.
- 10) Faith helps us avoid trouble, because it helps us keep our eyes on God.
