The Erickson family, grieving the recent death of Erik K. Erickson.

Jason James Parkhurst, baptized at Our Savior's on Saturday, May 19, 2018.

Worship with Young Children

Children of all ages are welcome at worship. Activity bags are available at the back of the Sanctuary and there is a special kids' corner, to the left of the pulpit, with additional materials. The service is also broadcast in the adjacent Lounge, should you need to step out during worship.

Affirmation of Baptism

Today, Daniel Katari, Olivia House, Ella Johnston, Caroline Botsford, Maya Stelzer, Aubrey Rosso, and Isabel Lopez will affirm the vows taken for them at their baptism. This is always a deeply meaningful service when our young people share their faith with our community. Welcome!

Thank You, Handbell Choir!

Today our handbell choir, Bellissimo, plays in worship for the last time this season (until the fall). Thanks, Bellissimo! We are always looking for new ringers. If you have interest, contact Martin Morley (martin@oslc.net) and we'll get you trained!

Church Council Meets Today

Today, 10:45 AM, Chapel

The Church Council will meet at 10:45 AM this morning to look at the proposed budget for 2018-2019. Council meetings are open to anyone who wishes to attend.

Project Peace: Day of Service

Saturday, June 2, 9:00 AM

A Day of Service is a volunteer service opportunity coordinated by Project Peace East Bay to bring together local faith-based groups, non-profit organizations, and East Bay social service providers. A Day of Service involves community "sweat equity" and lasts from 9:00 AM to noon. These events are open to ALL AGES. Please consider serving at YEAH! Sign up at projectpeaceeastbay.org.

High School Senior Quilt Sunday

Sunday, June 3, 9:30 AM

On June 3, as our high school seniors prepare for their high school graduation and whatever comes next, we will be blessing them. It is our tradition at OSLC to bless the seniors by giving them quilts. This year all the seniors are receiving quilts. Come celebrate this milestone!

Budget Forum on June 3

Sunday, June 3, 10:45 AM, Sanctuary

Before you have the chance to vote on the upcoming budget for 2018-2019, come to the budget forum on Sunday, June 3, to get a first look at both income and expense projections, share your thoughts, and ask questions. This forum is a great way for you to be informed and give feedback on the budget prior to our Annual Meeting on June 10.

June Book Discussion: Taylor's Luminous Web

Tuesday, June 5, 9:30 AM, Library

Due to popular demand, our June book is Luminous Web: Essays on Science and Religion by Barbara Brown Taylor. We read this book years ago. It is brilliant and inspiring. Even if you cannot make the book discussion, this is a book everyone should read. Our first discussion is Tuesday, June 5, 9:30 AM. Please read through "Evolution of Praise" for the first discussion.

Evening Discussion of Rob Bell's What is the Bible?

It's overwhelming, you all want an evening discussion about Rob Bell's What is the Bible: How an Ancient Library of Poems, Letters, and Stories Can Transform the Way You Think and Feel About Everything. Pastor Holly is working on the details. Nevertheless, the discussion will happen in mid-June. More information to come. Until then, buy the book and start reading. You won't be disappointed.

Shape Our Worship Experiences

Would you be interested in serving on the Worship and Music Team? We want a wide range of ideas and opinions as we evaluate and develop what we do in worship. We are currently looking for three new members to begin in the fall, and are particularly interested in non-musicians! Contact Martin (martin@oslc.net) if you have an interest in working with this team.

Musicians Needed This Summer

Do you play an instrument or like to sing? We would love to have you share your music with us during the summer. The choirs have the summer off and we welcome solos, duets, combos, and even accordion players. Please talk to Martin (martin@oslc.net) if you can help.

YEAH! Appreciates Your Giving

Thank you to the congregation for donating 968 items to YEAH! during our recent drive! This includes 295 soap and 195 dental products. YEAH! and the Mission Outreach Team are grateful for this incredible response.
