

1 & 2 SAMUEL

LEGENDARY

“When God Confronts Our Sin”

INTRO: Thus far, David has been portrayed as the prototypical Messiah. His zeal for the Lord brought numerous blessings upon the entire nation of Israel. But David was imperfect. His sins of adultery and murder do not go unnoticed or unaddressed by God, but David’s response prove exemplary.

I. God’s Kingdom is to be characterized by _____.

God’s Kingdom is His rule on earth through Man. Righteousness is morally correct behavior exhibited by Kingdom citizens.

II. Kingdom _____ who fail to live _____ will be confronted by _____ (11:1-12:12).

God may use people to confront us if we (Christians) fail to respond to the Spirit.

III. When God confronts our failure to live _____ as Kingdom _____, ... (12:13-31).

If there is any bright spot to this story, it is David’s exemplary response.

A. _____ (12:13a).

Unlike Saul, David confessed. Psalm 51 was penned as a result.

B. _____ (12:13b-23).

God determines the discipline, but we may plead mercy.

C. _____ (12:24-25).

Attempt should be made despite the response of those we hurt.

D. _____ (12:26-31).

Life doesn’t stop. God is not finished with us.
