

Death to ALL; Resurrection for ALL*

What Sentence Did Jesus' Resurrection Overturn?

INTRO: Because it is Easter, we pause in our study of Revelation to focus on Jesus' resurrection and its implication upon all people, especially Christians.

- I. Jesus _____ from the _____ (15:20). His resurrection was bodily and is the reason that His followers gather on Sunday for worship.

- II. All people are destined to _____ (15:21). Death is a physical and spiritual separation, ultimately from God. All inherit a sin nature from Adam and the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).

- III. Jesus' _____ overturns the sentence of _____ for all who are "_____ " (15:22). Being "in Christ" is a theological way to describe those spiritually identified with Jesus through trust in His sacrifice.
 - A. Jesus' resurrection is God's _____ of many _____ resurrections. Jesus is the "first fruits" of a resurrection harvest that will be accomplished in phases.

 - B. People must identify with Jesus by _____ to be "_____ " and overcome _____. Faith is more than intellectual ascent; it is absolute trust.

 - C. Resurrection for ALL is essential to God's plan for _____. Believers AND unbelievers will experience resurrection to facilitate their eternal destiny (Rev. 20:11-15).