Genesis 1-11

The Hope of Overcoming Great Commission Barriers

INTRO: Genesis 10, also known as the “Table of Nations,” is often treated as an interruption in the Biblical narrative and sadly ignored by many Bible preachers and students. However, it contains information critical to Israel’s success as God’s chosen representatives in the Land of Promise and principles encouraging to the fulfillment of our commission as Christ’s ambassadors.

I. God has given Believers a _____ to represent Him to a _____ world. Israel represented God in the OT by proclaiming His salvation. the NT Church does the same in making disciples (Psalm 67:1-2; 96:2-3; Matth. 28:19-20).

II. Physical _____ present challenges to the fulfillment of our _____ (10:1-32). Genesis 10 describes several physical barriers that would challenge the success of Israel’s mission. These are still barriers NT Believers face.

III. To overcome the physical _____ that challenge fulfillment of our _____, ...

A. Trust God’s Plan for _____. This was part of God’s Plan to bless the entire earth through Abraham and Israel (Cf. Acts 17:26-27; Genesis 12:3).

B. Trust God’s Power in the _____. The Gospel is able to overcome any barrier between God and people (Cf. Romans 1:16; 2 Corinthians 5:16; Galatians 3:28).
