

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITHGenesis 1-11“God’s Eternal Plan for Temporal Judgments”

INTRO: The previous section of study ended with mankind scattered over the entire earth. Was this judgment (the third in our study) a curse or a blessing, and if a blessing, how and for whom?

I. God’s eternal plan is for _____ to represent Him on the earthly form of His Heavenly _____.

Man was made in God’s image and given everything he needed.

II. The failure of the “_____” (Man) and his descendants brought God’s temporal _____, raising doubt about the _____ of God’s eternal plan. The judgments mentioned in Genesis 1-11 appear to devastate humanity and derail its chance to fulfill God’s plan.

III. Rejoice! God’s temporal _____ are integral to His eternal plan for the “_____” (Messiah) to represent Him on the earthly form of His heavenly _____ (11:10-26).

A. God’s temporal _____ advance His eternal plan. They might appear as disastrous interruptions but are instrumental for fulfilling God’s plan for Man and His world.

B. God chose _____ to bless all nations with the _____. Israel was God’s choice from eternity past. Jesus Messiah is referred to as the “Last Adam” (1 Cor. 15:45) who will fulfill perfectly what the first Adam could not!
