

The Gospel According to Mark

Follow the Leader

“Final Jeopardy”

INTRO: While in Jerusalem for Passover, Jesus was challenged with three questions by religious leaders skeptical of His claims. Would Jesus fall into their trap? Jesus had one final question of His own for all his interlocutors. Would they be able to give the correct answer?

I. All people ask _____ of God.

It is common for people to ask God questions about a myriad of subjects. God’s answer may amaze, stupefy, or else silence.

II. Skeptics ask _____ of God to _____ Him

(12:13-34). Skeptics seek to make God appear conflicted, foolish, or else non-essential to justification. The interrogators didn’t recognize that the Person they questioned was God incarnate!

III. All people must answer _____ question:
_____? (12:35-37).

The correct answer must affirm these four truths.

A. _____.

B. _____.

C. _____.

D. _____.
