

God's Wrath, Man's Wrath, and Our Response

INTRO: The Psalms were Israel's inspired hymnal. We don't know the tunes to which they were sung, but like any worship song, the words are the most important feature. Psalm 76 is all about the unpopular topic of God's wrath and the proper response to its revelation in Biblical history.

I. God has revealed His _____ in _____ of His covenant people (1-3). The different dates of writing and intended purpose are connected, but ultimately the message of response is the same.

II. Man's _____ may inflict temporary _____ on God's people but is ultimately a _____ in God's sovereign plan to _____ Himself (4-10). The persecution of God's people is painful, but God remains in control and is using it for His glory and our good.

III. Because God is sovereign in His _____, ... (11-12). There are two responses from two different people.

A. _____.
Vows could be considered pledges.

B. _____.
The Bible speaks of Gentile Believers coming from faraway lands to pay tribute to Messiah (Revelation 21:24).
