

REVELATION

The King is Coming! A Final Plea

INTRO: As we come to the end of our study of Revelation, one final plea is made for a response that results in blessing instead of a curse.

- I. Jesus is _____ soon (22:10-11). This book reveals the events preceding Jesus' earthly return. It is intended primarily to be an encouragement to the church.
- II. When Jesus _____, He will _____ the world (22:12-15). Everyone WILL be judged. The Righteous (those saved by faith in Jesus) will be judged to determine the degree of rewards received (2 Cor. 5). The Wicked (those who reject Jesus) will be judged for the degree of punishments due (Rev. 20).
- III. Come to _____ now; receive God's offer of _____ before it is too late (22:16-21). This is the final plea in the New Testament. Will you spend eternity WITH God or WITHOUT God. The choice is yours.
- A. Admit you are a _____ in need of a _____. Our sin separates us from a holy God (Romans 3:23; 6:23).
- B. Believe that Jesus _____ for you and _____. This was God's demonstration of love (Romans 5:8).
- C. Transfer your _____ in Jesus for salvation. Faith is trust. There is no other way (Ephesians 2:8-9).
