

Living Godly in an Ungodly Age

INTRO: Few Christians would disagree that we are living in challenging times. Christianity is a religious target, and living for the Lord is becoming increasingly more difficult. How can Christians live godly in an ungodly age? Dr. Ron Bigalke shares five principles from Paul's letter to Titus that require the Believer's constant attention and focus as they live in this world and yet understand that their citizenship is in heaven.
