

Membership Application

2020

The Near East Archaeological Society promotes original research in the areas of biblical and ancient Near Eastern archaeology. Membership dues enable the society to support archaeological fieldwork, generate an awareness of archaeological discoveries, cultivate an interest in Bible backgrounds, explore synchronisms between the Bible and archaeology, and engage the archaeological community while embracing the historical accuracy of the Bible.

Benefits of individual and student memberships:

- Print subscriptions to the NEAS bulletin (published annually) and Artifax magazine (published quarterly)
- Eligibility to present papers at the society's annual meetings
- Eligibility to serve on the society's board of directors and leadership committees
- Eligibility to serve on the bulletin's editorial board and publication team
- Eligibility to vote in society-wide elections

Benefit of institutional and associate memberships:

- Print subscriptions to the NEAS bulletin (published annually) and Artifax magazine (published quarterly)

Please select your membership type:
