Pastor's Pondering A few weeks ago, I shared how Nathan and I had been reading about Cameron Townsend, the founder of Wycliffe Bible Translators. We finished that book, and are now reading about Rachel Saint. Rachel served as a Wycliffe Bible Translator in Pe- ru and Ecuador, and helped translate the New Testament into Waorani. As a young woman, Rachel had the op- portunity to become the heir of a rich family friend. She couldn't see herself liv- ing in such ease, and instead served at a halfway house for 12 years before going to the jungles as a missionary. She lived in Ec- uador for the rest of her life, spending 30 of those years with the people who killed her brother, Nate Saint, and four other missionaries in 1956. Yes, she turned down earthly riches, but obtained that which Jesus promises us. May we seek the same in our lives. - Blessings, David	9, we return to a focus on wisdom and liv- ing a righteous life. November Memory Verse 1 Thessalonians 5:16–18 <sup>16</sup> Rejoice always; <sup>17</sup> pray with- out ceasing; <sup>18</sup> in everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.
