Pastor's Pondering

While there are times when I struggle to put something into this little box, usually it is a struggle to condense all I want to say into the available space. I feel that way when it comes to talking about theology or sharing about Jesus—there is just too much to say and it is practically impossible to convey the wonder of it all.

How different we are than God! Jesus always knew the right thing to say and the right way to say it. He was able to condense great wisdom into simple stories that we still tell. Even in His person, Jesus managed to contain all the fullness of God (Col. 1:19) within a body just like yours and mine.

All the fullness of God, not just in a man's body, but in a baby's, and that baby placed into a tiny box—the manger. A box made to hold feed held the bread of life.

I just don't have the space to say it all...
- Blessings, David
