Pastor's Pondering

In Matthew 12:1-8, Jesus teaches that the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. This means that we have things seriously wrong if we get to the point where we are hurting people in order to honor the Sabbath.

That was the case when the disciples were snacking on grain in the fields. The Pharisees would rather see men go hungry than for them to “break the law” by picking and separating the grains of wheat from the chaff. We can do the same if we make what we do as a church more important than the people who are our church, or those we are seeking to reach.

The problem for the Pharisees was they thought the day was more important than the people. They forgot that God gave us the Sabbath laws for rest. This is why it is okay to stay home when the roads are icy.

I hope you got some good rest Sunday.
- Blessings, David
