Pastor's Pondering

After failing to reach our attendance goal for Riverbend Preteen Camp in 2023, we met it in 2024, and thought we would do even better this summer! Now, three weeks out, it will take a miracle to even match 2023.

This failure causes me a certain sadness. Partly it is the loss of the churches who were excited to join us and then changed their minds, and partly it is because this means, for me, that I need to step away from the camp ministry. It can make me think that God should have told me "no more" last year.

That is not what God did, though. He had me sign up again, knowing this is how things would go. That means this camp, just as it is, is part of His plan, even if He has different plans for next year.

Though our plans may fail, even that may be part of God's plans for His success!

- Blessings, David

Worship Preparation

We continue Paul's teaching about avoiding foolish arguments and growing as a mature believer in 2 Timothy 2:20-26.
