Pastor's Pondering

"Father of 3 Wonders When He'll Get Chance to Influence Others For Christ"

So said a headline from The Babylon Bee: the definitive source of fake news you can trust. The "article" reports that the father spends his free time with his kids and has no spare time to influence others for Christ. He desperately prays that God would send him a few people to mentor.

This dryly tongue-in-cheek article highlights a common error in our thinking whereby we discount the eternal impact we are already making in our families, believing the "real work" is done with others. We forget that the greatest things we do are the regular, even mundane tasks of life, and the greatest influences we have are with our children and grandchildren.

Though our family relationships change over the years, we can still be an influential example for our heirs.

- Blessings, David

Worship Preparation

We celebrate the Lord's Supper this Sunday and begin to look at some men in the Bible, beginning with the Bereans in Acts 17:1-14.
