Pastor's Pondering

In the end of his Narnia series, C.S. Lewis pictures heaven as a place that gets bigger the farther in you go. As the main characters progress through the landscape, they keep encouraging one another, "Farther up and farther in!" The idea is that just when you think you have found the deepest experience, you discover that you have not even scratched the surface.

What a wonderful picture of how the Christian life is experienced! As we walk with Jesus, we never really arrive; there's always something new we can learn or some area in which we can grow. Young Christians rightly feel like they are experiencing God fully, but find through the years that the fullness grows and grows.

Where are you in your walk with Jesus? Do you feel like you have experienced all you can? There is more to come. Let's go farther up and farther in!

- Blessings, David

Worship Preparation

We celebrate the Lord's Supper this Sunday and see how we rest from our labors in Hebrews 4:1-11.
