

Going Deeper into

Luke 6:43-45 – “A Tree By Any Other Name”

Our thoughts, words, and actions that come out under pressure show who we truly are. Therefore, the things that flow out of us are what we inwardly cultivate.

What subjects usually occupy your thoughts?

Are your thoughts generally positive or negative?

Read Phil 4:8-9. Paul gives instructions in this passage on what we should meditate on. Name some subjects that match the categories that are mentioned in this passage:

Things that are true –

Things that are right –

Things that are pure –

Things that are worthy of praise –

David illustrated the impossibility of trying to stop an internal character flaw in your own power alone. Read what the Apostle Paul wrote about this in Romans 7:14-19.

Instead of focusing on our flaws obsessively, we need to focus and be filled with Jesus. Read Galatian 5:16-17. What are some ways that you can focus on Jesus?

What thoughts, attitudes, and actions have you seen a gradual change in since following Christ?

What are some possible fruits that you believe can be cultivated even more in your life?