*Some Encouraging Words From The Editor-
Mother Bishop Shirley Tindal :
"Continue to Move Forward By Faith"*

Greetings to All in the Precious Name of Our Lord!

What an honor and a privilege it is to share with you some of the wonderful and magnificent highlights of our 17th Annual UFCCM Virtual Conference.

We are yet rejoicing over the powerful and anointed 17th Annual UFCCM Conference that we just experienced on June 22nd to June 25th. Each service was awesome, and the spirit of the Lord met us there! On Tuesday night our Ecumenical Patriarch brought us up to date with the State of the Fellowship Address. What an encouragement to know that we are yet moving forward by faith! Elder Karen Nixon told us on Wednesday night that we may have painful loses along this Christian journey, but His Holy Spirit will continue to lead and guide us to victory. On Thursday, His Grace Bishop Williams reminded us that "We Must Move Forward!" and this movement is predicated on 5 dimensions or levels of faith. On Friday night His Grace Bishop Hobson admonished us to "Follow The Anointing and Not the Crowd". These dynamic messages truly enriched and blessed our souls!

The Round Table discussion led by Teacher Tindal on Wednesday morning brought inspiration, answers, and clarity to both listeners and participants on strategies we used to continue to move forward in the midst of the pandemic. During the seminar presented on Thursday by His Grace Bishop Strong, he shared uplifting and informative methods we can use to revitalize our churches and ministries as we are gradually moving through the ending of this pandemic. These are just a few highlights from the conference, and we encourage you to visit the UFCCM website, www.ufccm.org for more information and updates concerning the conference as well as important information related to the entire UFCCM.

Take care and remember despite all that is going on, we "Must Continue to Move Forward By Faith!"

Officials and Members Headquarters Jurisdiction

Words of Encouragement from our UFCCM Ecumenical Patriarch,
Bishop Henry A. Tindal, Sr.

Yes! We Thank Presiding Bishop Shirley A. Tindal and the officials of the Headquarters Jurisdiction for your support of the 17th Annual UFCCM Conference.
The Lord's Presence was there!!

Once again, the Lord has granted his approval upon our meeting together in an Annual UFCCM Fellowship Conference. As Ecumenical Patriarch of this wonderful, God appointed and anointed Fellowship, we are yet rejoicing over the powerful time we experienced. This year marked the 17th official year of our operating as a Fellowship, and it is a blessing to look back and see where the Lord has brought us from.

More than ever, we can relate to the words of the song, "We have come this far by Faith, leaning on the Lord..." In fact, the theme of the conference, CONTINUING TO MOVE FORWARD BY FAITH has taken on a more profound meaning for us. Our direction is forward and we "...walk by faith and not by sight." (2 Cor.5:7) We must continue to not be negatively impacted by the circumstances of this "earth walk", but must keep our spiritual eyes focused on the things that are unseen. If we allow the things that we see to discourage, dishearten, disappoint or disturb us we will never reach our God granted blessings that are in store for us Remember Brother Peter. (Matthew 14:27-31) As long as he was focused on the Lord Jesus, he did what seems to be impossible. He stepped out of a boat on a stormy sea and walked on the water. For him the water became his, "hope built on nothing less than Jesus Christ and righteousness! BUT, when he stopped walking by Faith and saw where he was walking, why he was walking, and when he was walking, he succumbed to what his eyes beheld and not what his faith believed.

Let's take a lesson from Peter's experience. Keep your spiritual eyes on the Lord Jesus. See but do not see! Hear but do not hear! Let your Faith in the infallible truths of God's Word be the filter through which you See!

We are excited about what the future has in store. There are victories ahead of us. You have not yet seen your best days! Better and Greater is coming. "Only look back to more joyously appreciate your Praise!!"

Love and Blessings,

++Henry A. Tindal, Sr.

Good day Saints and Friends, This is the day that the Lord has made, I will rejoice and be glad in it!

Good day Saints and friends. I am yet saved, filled with the Holy Spirit and in the process of daily sanctification.

I thank God for another time to address the people of God. Last month was a challenge for me as I was sick in the hospital, but God brought me out again. Please continue to keep each other lifted up in prayer and know that today is Your day to become greater than the day before.

I am still rejoicing from the feast in the word that we had in our Annual UFCCM Virtual Conference. God moved and I was blessed from the very first night when our Bishop Tindal set the stage as we Continue to Move Forward by Faith from that point on in that powerful week!!!!

As we are yet in the pandemic and people's health is yet being challenged by this "invisible enemy", I am grateful to God that I am fully vaccinated. I am glad that I can get out of the house and spend time by myself with the Lord and with my two sons. Last week, I took the boys fishing, and we had a blast! We talked and experienced some good times together out of the house. Even though we have had to alter our "normal" plans, we are able to get out and do some things that allow us to be safe, sound, and secure with good social distance. Hold on and hang in there, we are "Moving Forward by Faith (MFF)", and we are looking to see what God has in store this year for us. Remember to MFF this year and watch God perform miracles that you would not have expected. I love you all and look forward to seeing you all soon!!!!

Overseer Tindal

Overseer James Brooks was appointed as the UFCCM HQ Jurisdictional Director of Outreach and Evangelism during one of our 2018 Jurisdictional Meetings! Overseer Brooks has been making "full proof" of this Ministry within the Baltimore community. Overseer Brooks seeks to make himself available to those who are around him and in need.

During the winter months many families, college students, and neighbors experienced a lack of food due to the loss of jobs . Because schools were closed, some students were unable to return home to their family members. This was a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. However, by God's grace those individuals were able to receive food and turkeys at a local distribution center. Deliveries were made to persons who could not get there due to lack of transportation.

I would like to acknowledge these women for National Women's Month celebrated in March.
Michelle Obama : Attorney wife of former President Barack Obama
Harriet Tubman : Political activist and Abolitionist
Kamala Harris: Attorney, first Asian and African American female Vice President
Cicely Tyson: Actress and fashion model

Pastor Atia Watkins-Jenerette

We would like to congratulate Pastor Atia Watkins and Apostle Rodderick Jenerette on their recent marriage!

The lovely couple was united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday July 3, 2021. The wedding was held at the Hall United Methodist Church in Glen Burnie, Maryland. The ceremony was officiated by our Ecumenical Patriarch, His Eminence Bishop Henry Tindal, and Mother Bishop Tindal. The beautiful bride was adorned in a fabulous white gown that complemented her gorgeous headpiece. She had five lovely bridesmaids and her eldest daughter Kristin served as her maid of honor. The handsome groom in his fashionable tuxedo, had five grooms men and his eldest son as his best man. The reception was held at the Embassy Suites and Conference Center located in Linthicum, Maryland. There were beautiful flowers throughout the reception hall and the combination of mauve and cream colors set the romantic ambiance throughout the evening as the new bride and groom danced to the loving tones of melodic music that was played throughout the reception!

What a loving and godly union this anointed couple makes! We wish them God's speed.

Dear Beloved,

There comes a time in all our lives that we must endure the grieving process of death. We as believers understand that death is a part of life, but we can also feel the hurts and pains of losing loved ones. The years of 2020/2021 placed all of us in an unfamiliar place; from loneliness to emptiness, from being vulnerable to feeling weak and broken.

However, I would like to encourage your hearts to hold on to the words according to the gospel of John 14:1" Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled" we can grieve, we can hurt, we can miss but do not be troubled! The kind guide, the Holy Spirit ,will lead us and guide us to the comfort of the Savior. Although we grieve for our loved one (s), let the comfort of our Savior be the peace of your grief.

I encourage you to hold on to your faith and stay committed to His Work! I am speaking from a place of losing 5 loved ones in a matter of 16 months, four of which transitioned in a matter of months of each other.

You can get through this just trust the Savior and it's ok to speak to professional help if needed! YOU ARE NOT WEAK! if you seek help. The mind can only handle so much before it snaps. Get the help if you need it!
It's ok to break but never ok to crack! We can get through this together!!

Did You Know That There Are Poets Amongst

Distant Calling

Where do I turn, where do I go, I'm not sure as the way is confusing and it seems long.

Did I hear it correctly, or am I dreaming?

No, the call is there, but not certain of the direction.

Again, I listen, again I wait.

Is it time yet, can I go now or must I continue to wait?

There are things that must be told to you, things that you must learn and digest, but it will come to you when it is time.

Just wait.

I'm restless and anxious, but I must wait.

I can only see and perceive those things around me so I must wait.

Can I go now while there is youth in my bones and childish thoughts in my mind?

They are fleeting and I'm afraid they may not return.

Can I go now, or must I continue to wait

-but wait for what I cried?

I need tenacity, I need commitment, I need patience.

Ah, patience that will make the journey doable.

Yes, time has come and gone,

I have changed,

all around me has changed,

but the distance remains the same.

Can I go now? There seems to be a clearer path.

Yes, your journey ahead now has a smoother path.

SAT

This Life Is But a Journey To Heaven

I am so thankful for this journey. I am honored to finally understand this journey.

I am blessed that God is with me on this journey.

I am fulfilled that now I have clarity as I journey.

I am so proud that the purpose of this journey is clear.

I am now able to make the best decisions as I journey.

God guides me but I know I have freedom to decide how I journey.

I do know that I will never ever journey without Him.

It is the choice I have made for the journey I have chosen to take.

This journey belongs to me.

This is MY journey.

It is My journey home.

Songs of Zion and Praise!

Father, I Stretch My Hands to Thee

Father, I stretch my hands to Thee, No other help I know;
If thou withdraw Thyself from me, Ah! Whither shall I go?

What did Thine only Son endure, Before I drew my breath!
What pain, what labor to secure My soul from endless death!

Surely Thou canst not let me die, O speak, and I shall live;
And here I will be unwearied lie, Till thou Thy spirit give.

Author of faith! To Thee I lift My weary ongoing eyes;
O let me now receive that gift! My soul without it dies.

Martyrdom

Lined by J. Jefferson Cleveland 1937- and Verolga Nix 1933-

It's Real

O how well do I remember how I doubted day by day.
For I did not know for certain that my sins were washed away;
When the Spirit tried to tell me, I would not the truth receive,
I endeavored to be happy, and to make myself believe.

When the truth came close and searching, all my joy would disappear,
For I did not have the witness of the Spirit bright and clear,
If at times the coming judgement would appear before my mind.
O it made me so uneasy, for God's smile I could not find.

But at last, I tired of living such a life of fear and doubt,
For I wanted God to give me something I would know about;
So the truth would make me happy and the light would clearly shine,
And the Spirit gave assurance that I'm His and He is mine.

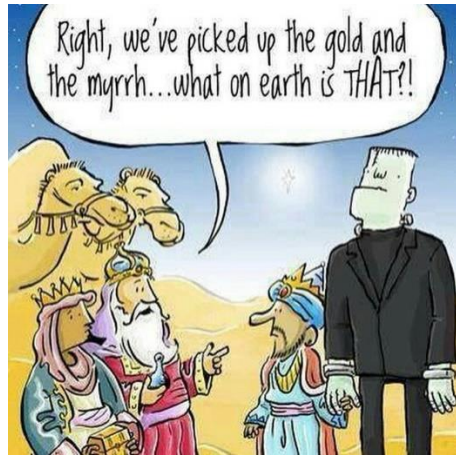

So I prayed to God in earnest and not caring what folks said,
I was hungry for the blessing, my poor soul it must be fed,
When at last by faith I touched Him, and like sparks from smitten steel,
Just so quick salvation reached me; O bless God, I know it's real!

Refrain

But it's real, it's real, it's real, O I know,
I know, it's real; Praise God, the doubts are settled,
For I know, I know it's real.
