WORDS OF WISDOM from Our Ecumenical Patriarch

We Have Come This Far by Faith

The title of this song truly sums up our journey through life, at least since becoming a child of God through faith in the finished work of our Lord Jesus. The words of the song seem to be even more so true, as we reflect upon where we have come since the COVID-19 coronavirus has been moving throughout the world with its devastating effects. If we may share two more lines from the song they would be, "leaning on the Lord" and "trusting in his Holy word." Obviously, "he's never failed me yet."

The keys to continuing to move by faith, are totally embodied in the words, "trusting in His Holy word." Jesus, our Lord and Savior reminds us in all three of the synoptic gospels (Matthew 24:35, Mark 13:31, and Luke 21:32) that "heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Since the Lord's words shall never pass away, we should always, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding" but, "in all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." We may not be able to know everything that we would like to know about what the future may hold for us concerning this pandemic in which we are shrouded, but we can and must always continue to trust in the Word of the Lord.

When we trust in his word, we can Move Forward by Faith! And we can do so unencumbered by the uncertainties of life or being apprehensive or living in fear. All through 2020, we had as our theme for the year in the UFCCM, Moving Forward by Faith. This guiding theme has been so profound that we are changing it for the coming year by just two words. Those two words are, "continue" and "to." We anticipate finishing this year out and journeying through 2021 with the theme, "Continue to Move Forward by Faith." We cannot, must not, and will not cease to keep our faith in the Word of the Lord. God's word is the source of all the encouragement that we need to continue to move forward by faith.

You will not get lost because Jesus said, "I am the way." (John 14:6) Follow him! You will not go hungry because Jesus said, "I am the bread of life." (John 6:41) Feast on the Word! You will not stumble in darkness because Jesus said, "I am the light of the world." (John 8:12) Walk in the light! You will not be alone because Jesus said, "I am with you." (John 13:33) death, or the hereafter, because Jesus said in His word that, “I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.” (John 11:25) Rest assured! Do not fear tomorrow, or any person, situations, circumstances, trials, or anything that Satan brings against you. The Word in which you trust says, “The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are as bold as a lion.” (Proverbs 28:1) Keep trusting in the Word of God! You have come this far “trusting in His Holy Word.” The record attest that he has never failed you! Continue to Move Forward by Faith!

Be bold! You need not fear sickness,

Greetings All in the Precious Name of Our Lord! We are so happy and excited to have this opportunity to share with you through our Headquarters Jurisdictional Messenger and Fellowship Newsletter!

Much has transpired since our last Newsletter and we have much to continue to praise God for! Despite all the unrest that may exist around us, we must be mindful and prioritize those things that are “really important”. Remember from the song writers of old that we are “pilgrims traveling through this land and we did not come here to stay” and “our hope is built on nothing less than Jesus’ blood and righteousness, and we dare not trust the sweetest frame but wholly lean on Jesus’ Name!

We think of our Lord Jesus and how he focused on the things that really matter, for indeed He was (is) our true example of how we ought to live in this world. If we follow him completely, he will lead us perfectly. He demonstrated the best attributes of a leader- leading by example. Jesus declared in Luke 18:1 “And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;”

When the disciples heard what Jesus said as well as witnessed the many miracles that He performed, they requested that Jesus please teach them how to pray and what things they ought to pray for. Jesus gave them the model that you should base your prayers on and we call that “The Lord’s Prayer”, which can be found in St. Matthew 6:9 and in Luke 11:2.

It is imperative that we come before Him consistently and daily with our prayers believing that he will hear and answer them. We must have fellowship with our Lord. In order to have fellowship, we must have relationship with Him. This relationship comes about when we have accepted Christ as Lord and Savior! When we come before Him to make our petitions known, we must first acknowledge, honor, and worship Him. Then, we must come with faith believing and nothing wavering, and “that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him” (Hebrews 11:6b)

We encourage each of you to take time to review the structure of the Lord’s prayer, and how we anticipate having our prayers answered praying in His will as we continue to Move Forward by Faith!

Words of Encouragement from the UFCCM General Overseer

Greetings Saints and Friends,

Thank God that we are now in a new season of Fall. As we embrace change in the weather, let us also embrace change in our life. Things that we used to take for granted and do on a regular basis have been significantly altered due to the COVID-19 virus. We have been used to worshipping a certain way and right now, it is not feasible to “slap your neighbor high five” or “hug someone and tell them that you love them”.

We are in the last days and have been expected to alter our normality into what may seem to abnormal but may be what is expected of us in the future, at least for the next year or so. We know that the scientists are frantically working on a cure, but thank God that His blood is yet keeping us through this. Be careful though Saints, we are not invincible, and we should take precautions. The word instructs us to be obedient to the laws of the land. During this time, let us pray and fast and get closer to God as we live through this pandemic.

Read the book of 1st Samuel this month and write down 10 things that you learn from that book. Challenge yourself to do this and hear how the Spirit will speak to you through His word. Love you all and I look to hear in the next issue some of the points that you gleam from 1st Samuel.

Hold on and hang in there, we are “Moving Forward by Faith (MFF)” and we are looking to see what God has in store this year for us. Remember to MFF this year and watch God perform miracles that you would not have expected.

We love you all and look forward to seeing you all soon!!!!

A Season of Shifting

(Please note that this article is being present again by popular demand!)

Scriptural Ref: Numbers 11

Difficult and uncomfortable as change is, God allows transitional phases to grow our faith, mature us and prepare us for greater blessings. The more willing we are to say yes to these transitional seasons and trust God through them, the more God can do for us.

There is something bigger and better God wants to do in our lives. That is why we are going through various changes. We are in a shifting season; and when we say yes to God as we walk through areas of doubt, distress, distraction, and dissatisfaction there's a major breakthrough we will step into.

Moses went through transition, a season of shifting and uncomfortability. He did not want to be the one to deliver the children of Israel from Egyptian slavery. He argued with God so he would not have to step into that role (Exodus 4). He felt unequipped for such a major assignment but could not get himself out of it. The Israelites made matters worse because they did not adapt well to his leadership. They were disgruntled, inflexible, rebellious, and abusive to Moses.

I believe Moses was stressed. It was not like he had power to provide Israel with what they were accustomed to, and there certainly was no going back to Egypt! Israel did a poor job of adapting to the process God was using to create progress. They were resistant to change, they prolonged their time in the wilderness and went through a lot of unnecessary hardships.

God does not want that for you and neither do I!

I believe God is sending this word specifically to somebody who is uncomfortable and going through a season of shifting or a transitional moment. You do not have all the answers. You do not know how things will turn out, but you do have a promise from God, and a promise from God is all that's needed.

Despite the drought and/or wilderness today, you are headed toward a blessing. Shifting might not feel good, but great things are on the horizon. God is stretching you and challenging you. You cannot grow weary through the process. Through the process growth occurs and growth happens when things become uncomfortable. You never will grow in an easy place! You will reap a harvest (Galatians 6:9) if you embrace your shifting season.

Accept the transition – even through the painful and uncomfortable moments. Pain and uncomfortability is preparing you for better and greater. Trust God through your dry places. Believe God has equipped you. Willingly give up what you are used to in exchange for the new and better thing God is doing. It is not easy, but it is necessary.

Some say, trust the process, but I say, trust the God of the process. God knows just what He is doing. There is no failure in Him. He knows how to make a way out of no way and miracles are his everyday business. I have seen Him do it for me many times, and He will do it for you. Just believe Him in your season of shifting!

“MOVING FORWARD AND WALKING BY FAITH”

2 COR. 5:7 “FOR WE WALK BY FAITH NOT BY SIGHT OR APPEARANCE”

This Scripture is often quoted and is one of the most fundamental truths and statements that we as believers can make and live by. of the Bible. However, this scripture, while often quoted, is, for many, difficult to apply and actually live by. If we want to move forward by faith, it is essential that we walk by faith and not by sight. What this really means is that we are to walk by faith, not by our five physical senses (taste, touch, smell, hearing, and sight). The reason this is difficult to learn is because we have been trained for years to walk by natural human faith, and not the Godkind of faith.

We realize that natural human faith is still necessary in life. For example, in crossing a street, if we were to see a vehicle coming down the road, it would be essential for us to respond using our natural human faith and get out of the road immediately. If not, the outcome could be devastating or even fatal!!!! This illustrates that there are, indeed, many situations that occur in our daily lives that require us to respond with natural human faith. However true this may be, we must remember that in order to move forward by faith, in order to receive what God has for us, and in order to walk out what God has in store for us, we must learn to walk in the God-kind of faith—not by sight or what it looks like, but by faith!! .

MATT. 6:25 "SO I TELL YOU, DON'T WORRY ABOUT EVERYDAY LIFE—WHETHER YOU HAVE ENOUGH FOOD, DRINK, AND CLOTHES. DOESN'T LIFE CONSIST OF MORE THAN FOOD AND CLOTHING?"

Jesus Himself declared here in Matthew chapter 6 that we are not to worry about everyday life. Worry is an indicator of indicator of whether we are walking by faith or whether we are walking by sight. We know this is true because worry and faith are not compatible, and they cannot co-exist. Worry means to be anxious or troubled with the cares of this life. When we worry, what we are doing is putting our focus and attention on what is happening in the natural. But when we walk by faith, we are able to move forward by faith, thus dispelling and dismissing worry from our lives.

Faith does not speak of things as though they will one day come to pass. Faith brings what one hopes for into the "now". So, in order to be able to walk by faith and not by sight, we need to have a renewed mind, ushering in a transition in the way we think and in what we see. We no longer see in the natural, but we see with the eyes of faith. We no longer consider circumstances over God's word and His promises.

HEB. 11:1 “NOW FAITH IS THE ASSURANCE (THE CONFIRMATION, THE TITLE DEED) OF THE THINGS [WE] HOPE FOR, BEING THE PROOF OF THINGS [WE] DO NOT SEE AND THE CONVICTION OF THEIR REALITY [FAITH PERCEIVING AS REAL FACT WHAT IS NOT REVEALED TO THE SENSES]”

We must know and understand that faith is the proof of what we hope for. Our hope begins in what God has promised, but through faith, that hope is changed into a present reality before it is ever seen or realized.

So, dear brothers and sisters, let us as move forward by faith by making sure we are walking by faith, standing on God's promises, knowing that what He has promised will come to pass in our lives. God cannot lie! Take Him at His word!!!

Love and Blessings,

Teacher Margaret A. Tindal

Why Is the Apostles' Creed Important?

The Apostles' Creed, like the Nicene Creed, is widely accepted as a statement of faith among Western Christian churches (both Roman Catholic and Protestant) and used by many of Christian denominations as a part of worship services.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of belief widely used in Christian liturgy. It is called Nicene because it was originally adopted in the city of Nicaea by the First Council of Nicaea in 325. In 381, it was amended at the First Council of Constantinople, and the amended form is referred to as the Nicene or the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed.

It is the simplest of all the creeds. This creed is called the Apostles' Creed not because it was produced by the apostles themselves but because it contains a brief summary of their teachings. It sets forth their doctrine "in sublime simplicity, in unsurpassable brevity, in beautiful order, and with liturgical solemnity."

In its present form it is dated no later than the fourth century. More than any other Christian creed, it may justly be called an ecumenical symbol of faith. This translation of the Latin text was approved by the CRC Synod of 1988.

The Apostles' Creed is the most well-known summary statement of what orthodox Christians hold to be true. It reminds of us central points about which all Christians must agree, serves as a defense against heresies or false teachings which deny any element, summarizes the faith, and provides an important resource for either private or corporate statements of Christian faith.

God wants us to have Peace during this phase of our lives. There should be no room to be afraid. Being afraid will frighten and handicap you from becoming your complete self that God desires you to be. So, let us not be troubled about the things of this world but let us receive the Peace that God gives us freely each and every day to walk in Victory!

He attends the Pikesville Middle School and is in the 6th grade. Things are very different because all of his class assignments are done virtually. He has had the opportunity to meet others in his class via the computer but will be glad when things go back to face to face classroom sessions. He enjoys learning and the new challenges that his classes bring. He misses going to his Karate Classes and will be happy when he can resume as he is looking forward to obtaining his next belt. He enjoys going to church and playing the drums, and especially hearing his father preach on Sunday mornings.

You Can do it

One Day at a Time!

You can trust Jesus, today,
for the hope and strength you need.
You don't have to worry about tomorrow,
since fretting over tomorrow adds nothing to today, and the Lord already knows what you need. Luke 12:38

Then live one day at a time with your eyes on Jesus , with your faith in His promises, and with your heart determined to believe:
“All things work together for good.” Romans 8:28
“The Lord will fulfill His purpose for me.”

You can do it!
You can overcome the conditions that face you, when you have Jesus in your heart, and when you use His strength, not yours,
to do your best today,
Trusting Jesus!

News & Happenings from KCCM in Rock Hill, South Carolina

We are yet “sheltering in place” here in North and South Carolina. Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, we have not been able to meet face to face for our regular Sunday Morning services. But we are yet praising God and have much to for which we are thankful. We have been worshipping via ZOOM, and have had a good attendance by KCCM Members! Pastor Watkins has been “preaching down”, delivering powerful and wonderful messages that have truly fed our souls! Elder Maddox, Deaconess Gaston, and others have been faithfully attending each service. We are encouraged and we are “Moving Forward by Faith”!

On Sunday October 4th, His Eminence Bishop Henry Tindal, Sr., brought the Word and asked a soul-searching question, “What Do You Really Believe?” from St. John 10:25-30. Bishop Tindal challenged us by reminding us that what you believe does not vary and that God knows his sheep! Bishop Tindal has manuscripts available for anyone that would like to read the message. Please contact HQ Jurisdiction at secretarygeneral@uffccm.org for more information.

Teacher Margaret Tindal has been faithful in teaching Christian Education every Tuesday Evening at 7:00 PM. She has been presenting wonderful lessons out of the book of James!

We are looking forward to returning to our face to face services in the near future! Please keep us in your prayers as we continue the work of the Lord!

From the Archives of Bishop Tindal's Daily Reflections- A Word From The Word

“Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.” Hebrews 10:8-9 (KJV).

The First is no more.

It is to no avail to seek to be justified by God through any other means than the way that was made by the Lord Jesus on the cross. The way of appeasing the justice of a just God through the keeping of the Law of Moses is no longer what God requires. In fact, the purpose of the Law of Moses was really to show mankind that through the works of the Law, no person may be justified in God's sight. All 619 tenets of the Law had to be observed and kept for an individual to be justified and “right” with God. This was an impossible task. The word says in James, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.” James 2:10 (KJV) The Law was a mirror through which sinful man would be able to see his inadequacy to be saved through his attempts to observe the law. In other words, by human works none can be justified before God. All the good that any can do will never make one “good enough” to deserve salvation. God in his mercy, under the Law gave Israel the privilege of obtaining deliverance through observance of offering sacrificial offerings.

Jesus destroyed the method of individuals seeking to be justified before God by taking away the first, or taking away the demands of The Law, and paying the price of man's redemption with his life. When one believes on the Lord Jesus Christ and receives him into his life as his savior, God looks upon that person just as if he had never sinned. The persons sins are covered by the blood. Every time the devil tries to dig up a believer's sins past, present or future God sees the blood of his Son covering the believer and not the believer's sins. The First is no more! Jesus established the way, the truth and the light. Whosoever believe on him shall not perish but have everlasting life. Do not beat yourself up when you sin or fail. Your afflicting yourself will not save you. Bodily exercise, in an attempt to purge oneself of sin is an insult to Jesus who has already been beaten, despised, abused, misused, rejected, rebuked and scorned for your sins. To try to redo what he has done shows a lack of faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ or an unclear understanding of what it means to be a Born-Again believer. The First is no more

Did You Know that There are Poets Amongst Us?

The Cost of Freedom

From a hillside called Golgotha
Where He hang his head and died
The angles stood still in silence
For it was there He was crucified

Though it pleased the Lord to bruise Him
The spectators did not understand
It was not the nails or spears that killed Him
But the Love He had for man
Yet He died in great submission
To regain that which was lost
Only He could bear the penalty
Only God could pay the cost

So in this redemption story,
written in blood for you and me,
Be not entangled with sin's yoke of bondage,
for the Master hath set us free.

Falling Leaves

Gently we move from one place to another
Feeling the breeze and opulent air Hearing the sounds around but not stopping to listen
as this is not where to land.

Further flying, lifting, rising above seeing now all that was missed,
all that was anticipated.

Taking in the freshness, the beauty, the novelty of what is seen.

Suddenly, floating, drifting, unpredictably caressing what we encounter.

Finally, completely we rest, we de cease, we are here now

Be the Best of Whatever You Are

If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill;

*Be a scrub in the valley-but be
The best little scrub at the side of the rill;*

*Be a bush if you can't be a tree.
We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,*

There's something for all of us here;

There's big work to do , and there's lesser to do,

And the task we must do is near.

If you can't be a highway, then just be a trail,

*If you can't be a sun, be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or you fail-*

Moving Forward by Faith

I stand at the door and look out into the unknown.

So badly wanting to see clear through to eternity.

Before I step out I want to know, where am I going?

What obstacles will I encounter?

Who will I meet. How will I know which road to take?

Take the road less traveled, that is where I need you most.

You would be too frightened to take that first step if you knew

Everything that you would encounter.

You are going on a journey that will be your right of passage

From this life to the next, eternity.

The obstacles come one at a time but each time faith will see

You through.

Walk by Faith not by sight, if you saw everything from the beginning to the end you would need no faith,

you would not need me.

Moving forward by faith through experiences in life deepens your relationship with me.

In this space of complete dependence on me/

surrender to me is where the greatest intimacy grows.

The Genius

His father made the universe so vast

His powers are unknown

This one of whom I speak so well sits on a golden throne

*This one of whom I speak so well
Is known throughout the earth
His goodness, mercy, wisdom too
all came with him at birth*

*His magic hand can set you free or his eyes with just a stare
He is with you when you go astray but you are unaware*

*His holy name has long been proclaimed and I'll speak it from dawn to dusk
Without a doubt in anyone's mind
His name was Christ Jesus*

We're Marching to Zion

Come, we that love the Lord, and let our joys be known, Join in a song with sweet accord, Join in a song with sweet accord, And thus surround the throne, And thus surround the throne.

Let those refuse to sing Who never know our God; But children of the heav'nly King, But children of the heav'nly King, May speak their joys abroad, May speak their joys abroad.

The hill of Zion yields, A thousand sacred sweets, Before we reach the heav'nly fields, Before we reach the heav'nly fields, Or walk the golden streets, Or walk the golden streets.

Then let our songs abound, And ev'ry tear be dry; We're marching through Immanuel's ground, We're marching through Immanuel's ground, To fairer worlds on high, To fairer worlds on high.

Refrain

We're marching to Zion, Beautiful, beautiful Zion; We're marching upward to Zion, The beautiful city of God.

Glory To His Name

Down at the cross where my Savior died, Down where for cleansing from sin I cried, There to my heart was the blood applied;

I am so wondrously saved from sin, Jesus so sweetly bides within; There at the cross where He took me in;

O precious fountain that saves from sin, I am so glad I have entered in; There Jesus saves me and keeps me clean

Come to this fountain so rich and sweet, Cast thy poor soul at the Savior's feet; Plunge in today and be made complete;

Refrain

Glory to His name, Glory to His name; There to my heart was the blood applied; Glory to His name.

This Little Light of Mine

This little light of mine, I'll let it shine. This light of mine, I'll let it shine, This light of mine, I'll let it shine, Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

Everywhere I go, I 'll let it shine. Everywhere I go, I 'll let it shine. Everywhere I go, I 'll let it shine. Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

All through the night, I'll let it shine. All through the night, I'll let it shine. All through the night, I'll let it shine. Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

Jesus Loves me

Jesus loves me! this I know for the Bible tells me so; Little ones to Him belong, They are weak, but He is strong Jesus loves me! He who died Heaven's gates to open wide! He will wash away my sin, Let His little child come in.

Jesus loves me! Loves me still, Though I'm very weak and ill, From His shining throne on high, Comes to watch me where I lie.

Jesus loves me! He will stay Close beside me all the way, If I love Him when I die, He will take me home on high.

Refrain

Yes, Jesus loves me, Yes Jesus loves me, Yes Jesus loves me, the Bible tells me so.

Putting on your Mask Prayer for Children

Creator, as I prepare to go into the world, help me to see the sacrament in the wearing of this cloth-Let it be "an outward sign of an inward grace "-a tangible and visible way of living love for my neighbors as I love myself . Christ, since my lips will be covered, uncover my heart, that people would see my smile in the crinkles around my eyes. Since my voice may be muffled ,help me to speak clearly, not only with my words but with my action. Holy Spirit, as the elastic touches my ears, remind me to listen carefully and full of care to all those I meet. May this simple piece of cloth be shield and banner, and each breath that it holds, be filled with your love. In your Name and in that love, I pray. May it be so. May it be so. Amen.

Two men began to talk about world problems, high taxes, the cost of living, and finally, their families. "I have three boys" one of them said proudly. "That's a nice family", sighed the other man, "I wish to heaven that I had three children." "Don't you have any children?" the proud father asked with a touch of sympathy in his voice. "Oh, yes," sighed the second man, "I have six."

Please note that many of our churches are offering their services online, via Facebook Live, Live stream, Conference Call, ZOOM, and You Tube. We are excited that we have access to this technology so that we can stay connected to one another. But remember when you are in a live stream such as Conference Calling or ZOOM- remember to PUT YOUR DEVICE ON MUTE! This is particularly important because the microphones on our devices (iPhones, computer, or iPads) are extremely sensitive and the audience can hear the slightest sounds that are made in the background. Also, if you are running two devices (computer and phone) you get a large amount of feedback which disables the audience from clearly hearing the speaker.

*Please note that our Jurisdictional Newsletter is published bi-monthly. Our next edition will cover the months of November & December 2020. If you have any articles, announcements, birthday wishes, event photos, poetry, or any church news to share, please forward that information directly to secretarygeneral@ufccm.org. The deadline for articles etc. is December 7, 2020. If you are interested in assisting with this endeavor, please send an email with your information (tell us a little something about yourself and why you would like to assist). Please include your church affiliation, Pastor's name, special talents that you may have, and how you can be reached.

Love and Blessings,
