

The Risen Christ Testifies of God's Satisfaction in the Suffering of His Son

The Truth of the Resurrection

Resurrection Sunday April 16, 2017

Isaiah 53

1 Who has believed our message? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

2 For He grew up before Him like a tender shoot, And like a root out of parched ground; He has no stately form or majesty That we should look upon Him, Nor appearance that we should be attracted to Him.

3 He was despised and forsaken of men, A man of sorrows and acquainted with grief; And like one from whom men hide their face He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

4 Surely our griefs He Himself bore, And our sorrows He carried; Yet we ourselves esteemed Him stricken, Smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; The chastening for our well-being fell upon Him, And by His scourging we are healed.

6 All of us like sheep have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way; But the Lord has caused the iniquity of us all To fall on Him.

7 He was oppressed and He was afflicted, Yet He did not open His mouth; Like a lamb that is led to slaughter, And like a sheep that is silent before its shearers, So He did not open His mouth.

8 By oppression and judgment He was taken away; And as for His generation, who considered That He was cut off out of the land of the living For the transgression of my people, to whom the stroke was due?

9 His grave was assigned with wicked men, Yet He was with a rich man in His death, Because He had done no violence, Nor was there any deceit in His mouth.

10 But the Lord was pleased To crush Him, putting Him to grief; If He would render Himself as a guilt offering, He will see His offspring, He will prolong His days, And the good pleasure of the Lord will prosper in His hand.

11 As a result of the anguish of His soul, He will see it and be satisfied; By His knowledge the Righteous One, My Servant, will justify the many, As He will bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore, I will allot Him a portion with the great, And He will divide the booty with the strong; Because He poured out Himself to death, And was numbered with the transgressors; Yet He Himself bore the sin of many, And interceded for the transgressors.

To the Glory of God

Now when the Lord graciously saved me back in 1971, the arguments about The Resurrection were more prominent and they were more intense than they are today. Back in the early 1970's, there was widespread consensus among believers, and non-believers alike, especially here in America, that deciding about that Biblical Claim that Jesus literally and physically and bodily rose from the dead by the Glory of the Father really mattered.

Back then, you took a stand either way; you either eagerly believed in the Resurrection, or you eagerly and categorically rejected it. And if you did believe in the Resurrection, you also generally believed the rest of the Bible and you called yourself a "Christian". And if you rejected the Resurrection, then, generally speaking, you relegated the rest of the Bible to be myth and nonsense, and you were intentionally and proudly not a "Christian".

But a strange thing has happened over the last 45 years. Today, that question, that debate, that issue, "Did Jesus literally and physically and bodily rise from the dead?", is not nearly as prominent and not nearly as intense as it once was, because, at one level, people feel that the Resurrection of a Man from the dead 2,000 years ago way across the ocean really doesn't have an impact on their own lives, because, after all, "different people believe in different things, and maybe it happened, and maybe it didn't. And if it did, and that helps some people to get along in this life, then fine. But, it really doesn't make much difference to me and it really doesn't affect me and my life all that much."

And so, many people today really think that they can call themselves a "Christian" and they can join a Church, and they think they can be in good standing with God, and either be unsure about the Resurrection of Jesus or outright reject it. And sadly, there is very little within many of those religious organizations that would ever do anything to challenge these people about that, even though the Bible categorically teaches that if you do not believe in the Resurrection you cannot be saved.

You see, in our modern American Culture, where everything today is "relative", objective, propositional, and absolute Truth is no longer vital. We have elevated "personal opinion" to be as valuable as "Truth". And, at the same time, we have lowered and devalued Divine Absolute Truth to be nothing more important than personal opinion.

It is common today to hear people say, "Well, that's just your opinion," when presented with clear Biblical Truth that they either don't like or don't want to hear. Or, when confronted with things that they really don't want to accept, they will quickly say, "Well, that's just your opinion." And it is common today for people to honestly believe that what they "believe" and what they "trust in" and what they "accept" is "Truth", as long as they are sincere about it or agree with it, even if what they believe or trust in contradicts the Absolute Truth of Scripture.

Many very sincere people say, "God knows my heart," which is really just a catch all phrase that seeks to justify whatever they believe and are doing. And since they honestly believe that, deep down, they really are "nice" people, it really doesn't matter if they accept the Biblical claim that God physically and literally and bodily raised Jesus of Nazareth from the dead on the 3rd day after His Crucifixion.

Many take the attitude that "I may or may not call myself a Christian, and if the Resurrection seems helpful to me, then I may believe it, and if it doesn't, then I won't. But, whether I do or I don't, it doesn't affect my relationship with God and it doesn't change where I am going to spend eternity." But is that true? Does it matter, as far as our eternity is concerned, whether or not Jesus rose from the dead? The answer to that question is what I want to explore today.

Now behind those two different kinds of unbelief, the kind from 45 years ago and the kind from today, is a completely different set of assumptions. For example, back when I was first saved, the assumption among unbelievers then was that there was a body of fixed, closed, and natural Laws that make the world understandable and scientifically manageable. And these Laws simply did not allow the Truth of the claim that Someone had risen from the dead to live forever to be believed by intelligent and thinking people.

And that was a commonly held assumption back then, that the modern world with its scientific understanding of natural laws does not allow for "resurrections". So, unbelief back then was often rooted in that kind of smug, intellectual, self-righteousness disguised as "scientific analysis", when, in fact, it was simply blind, ignorant, disbelief.

But today, in 2017, that is not the most common working assumption that we face. Today, the assumption is not that there are natural laws outside of me that forbid my acceptance of the Resurrection of Jesus, but rather, the assumption that we face today is that there is a "personal law" that is inside of me that says: "I don't have to accept anything in my life that I don't find personally helpful or personally relevant." Or, you could state this modern assumption another way by saying that many people today actually believe that: "Truth for me is not objective or propositional, it isn't Divine or Absolute, but 'truth' is simply whatever I find personally attractive and helpful."

And with that new assumption in place, and with that new subjective and suppositional "inner law" in place, it really doesn't matter whether Jesus rose from the dead or not, because, whether He did or didn't is irrelevant. Their only issue is: "Do I care? Do I personally find that idea helpful? Do I 'feel' that it helps me flourish as a human being?"

And if it seems like the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead on the third day doesn't, then they will view the Resurrection of Jesus the same way they view UFOs and possible life in some distant galaxy or some special effects in a movie, they really don't need to bother with it. And their false, pseudo-humility will also say, "But if it helps somebody else to believe or to trust in the Resurrection of Jesus, then by all means, that's just peachy keen, but don't you dare try to impose that nonsense on me."

And that is increasingly becoming the attitude of more and more people here in America, especially those younger than 45. In fact, some of you sitting here today may actually think that way, without even knowing that's the way you think. You have simply absorbed this carnal logic from the general culture because that way of thinking is now woven into most television shows and most advertising and most movies and is taught in modern educational curricula from the public school system.

So, what I am attempting to do this morning is confront this issue head on, and honestly examine how we, as human beings, sift through the “new indoctrination” that is coming at us every day from all these various sources. And my hope is that when I put the Resurrection of Jesus Christ before you today, not simply as a “religious belief”, but as an historical fact. And not something that “might be helpful to some people”, but as something that is required, if anyone is to spend eternity in Heaven. And if I, by God’s Grace, I am successful this morning, then you will not so easily buy into the bombardment of pagan and humanistic and just flat out wrong information concerning this Issue.

But we need to know that the rejection of the Resurrection is not only being carried out by the smug, self-righteous, apathetic, and atheistic people, but the physical and bodily Resurrection of Jesus three days after He died on a Cross is also categorically denied by the fanatically dedicated followers of the demonic religion of Islam.

Now, I didn’t know that until recently. I had my first serious conversation with a man who was well-trained in Islam about 15 years ago when I invited him to come and speak here. And I discovered, for the first time, that if you share the Good News of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ with a real, dedicated Muslim, you will find out that they do not believe that Jesus is God, they do not believe that Jesus died on the Cross for sinners, and they do not believe that God raised Jesus from the dead. Islam teaches that there was actually a replacement on the Cross, and Jesus completely escaped death, and, thus, never needed a Resurrection. Islam teaches that later on, Jesus was taken bodily into Heaven. In the Q’ran, in sura 4:156-157 it says:

“. . . and for their [the Jews'] saying: ‘We slew the Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, the Messenger of God’ – yet they did not slay him, neither crucified him, only a likeness of that was shown to them. Those regarding him; they have no knowledge of him, except the following of surmise; and they slew him not of a certainty – no indeed; God raised him up to Him; God is all-mighty, All-wise.”

Therefore, Islam teaches that the central Message of the New Testament and of Biblical Christianity is built on a mistake: Jesus Christ is not God, He did not die, and He did not rise. And that means two things:

1. Islam very clearly and precisely rejects the very core of the New Testament Scriptures.
2. Those who understand and believe what Islam teaches cannot be saved.

There is absolutely no “wobble room” here. The Holy Bible teaches clearly and repeatedly that fallen human beings of every stripe and color are justified by what we “believe in” and what we “confess” and what we “trust in”, and not by what we “do” to make ourselves acceptable in God’s Sight. All of the “doing” in Biblical Christianity is carried out by those who have already been born from above, as a human response to what God has already done in us and for us by and through the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Baptisms that we will carry out immediately after this Service today will involve people who have already been justified by Grace alone through Faith alone in the finished Work of Christ alone. Each one has trusted in Jesus personally and in His completed Work in three areas:

1. His sinless Life
2. His vicarious Death
3. His physical and bodily Resurrection

The water that I will immerse these people in does not have the power to wash their sins away. The Lord’s Table that we enjoyed on the first Lord’s Day of this month and last Wednesday evening does not have the power to wash their sins away. Attending the Church Service today does not have the power to wash their sins away.

Christians do not believe or teach that participation in the Sacraments forgives sin or saves souls. Christians do not believe or teach that Baptism forgives sins or saves souls. Christians do not believe or teach that our sins are forgiven and our souls are saved by Human Determinism.

So, believing and trusting and confessing “Who Jesus is” and “What Jesus did” is what saves people. And that means that Christians believe and teach what the Apostle Paul wrote in Romans 10:6-13:

6 But the righteousness based on faith speaks as follows: "DO NOT SAY IN YOUR HEART, 'WHO WILL ASCEND INTO HEAVEN?' (that is, to bring Christ down),

7 or 'WHO WILL DESCEND INTO THE ABYSS?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)."

8 But what does it say? "THE WORD IS NEAR YOU, IN YOUR MOUTH AND IN YOUR HEART" — that is, the word of faith which we are preaching,

9 that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved;

10 for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation.

11 For the Scripture says, "WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, abounding in riches for all who call on Him;

13 for "WHOEVER WILL CALL ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED."

So, all lost sinners must be graciously and sovereignly brought to a place by God the Holy Spirit where that person understands that he is lost. And he understands and believes and publicly confesses that Jesus Christ is God Almighty in human flesh. And that same person is also graciously and sovereignly given the gift of “saving faith” where he may believe that God raised Jesus from the dead. And Paul wrote here that the Belief results in Righteousness and the Confession results in Salvation.

So, it is very important to know that we get our information about what to believe and what to teach and what to confess and what to trust in from the Scriptures and from the Scriptures alone. We do not trust our own intuition; we do not trust our own hearts or what some ecclesiastical hierarchy has said.

We are those that believe and teach that what the Scriptures say about Jesus and about Salvation and what the Scriptures say about Creation, and Right and Wrong, and Heaven and Hell, and the Resurrection are historical facts, not merely theological debate points.

A Biblical Christian believes and teaches that God Almighty humbled Himself, not only in taking on flesh in the Incarnation, but also in taking on nouns and verbs through the inspiration of Scripture. A manger in an obscure Jewish village in the first century and a bloody Cross outside the gates of Jerusalem 33 years later were not sensational events at that time. And neither are pronouns and the various tenses of verbs. But that is the Method that the one, true, and living God chose to reveal Himself to Man.

A poor Jewish peasant and a prepositional phrase have something in common: they are both very human and they are both very ordinary. And the fact that a poor peasant was God in human flesh, and the prepositional phrase is the Word of God in human language doesn't change that.

Therefore, if God so humbled Himself to drape human flesh over perfect Deity and to make sure that very common human language was recorded on scrolls, how can any thinking person be so arrogant to ignore either the full Humanity of Jesus Christ or the Words of Scripture?

And so, when the Bible tells us that three days after He died on a Cross that Life from God entered back into Jesus' dead Body, and He opened His Eyes and He stood up and He walked out of that tomb and He rose from the dead, we believe that. And we trust and we confess and we teach and we defend that, because that is what the Bible says. And it goes on to say in 1 Corinthians 15:17:

and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins.

And that means that if Jesus "was" and "did" everything that the Bible says He "was" and "did", but did not rise from the dead, the Bible says our faith is worthless and we are still in our sins. So, without the literal and bodily Resurrection of Jesus, not a single sin has been forgiven and not a single soul is saved.

Now there are several significant historical reasons why the Islamic reconstruction of the Life, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus is not true. But here's the point in taking our text from Isaiah 53 this morning. This Chapter was not written by Christians after Christ's Coming. This Chapter is not some effort by those in the early Church to rewrite history about what really went on that particular Friday and that particular Sunday.

This Chapter was written by a Jewish Prophet about 700 years before Jesus was ever born. And it was copied thousands of times, and was published and had been distributed as far west as England and as far East as India 200 years before Jesus Christ came. And what this Prophet saw in the future was not a mere Man who taught people some things about God, but God Himself, Who was born of a virgin and Who lived a perfectly sinless Life.

Isaiah doesn't record a man who escapes death, and, thus, has no need for a Resurrection, as Islam teaches, but a Messiah Who dies, and dies explicitly in the place of sinners, and then rises again to make intercession for His redeemed and forgiven and justified people forever.

So, this sermon is about what really matters, not just what your own heart says matters to you. It is about unshakable, unchangeable, absolute Truth and your relation to that Truth.

Now one of the great advantages of having the Old Testament and the New Testament in one Bible is that they give support to each other. Together they strengthen our faith that both are God's Word. So, if you are Jewish or come from a Jewish background, your confidence in the Old Testament, the Jewish Scriptures, may be strong. Yes, and with good reason.

And so, when you see the amazing fulfillments of the Old Testament in the Life and Ministry of Jesus Christ, and His Teachings, and the Movement of Christianity that he unleashed on the world, your confidence in the New Testament is made stronger.

Or if you have never read a syllable of the Old Testament and hear the Story of Jesus Christ and His sinless Life and perfect Teaching and His Death and Resurrection and the Movement He unleashed, you may be overpowered by the Truth and relevance and credibility of Christ and believe that He really is Who He says he is, and you will become a Christian.

And then you discover that this Jesus embraces and endorses the whole Old Testament as being true and reliable Scripture (as in when he said, "Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I did not come to abolish but to fulfill.") And so, your confidence in the Old Testament grows precisely because of the New Testament.

And so, it works all through the Christian life. The better you know Jesus Christ, the better you know the roots of His Life and Ministry that are in the Old Testament where God was at work to prepare for the Coming of His Son into history. And the better you know the Old Testament, the better you know the Meaning of Jesus Christ and what He came to fulfill that God had been planning for so long.

So, this morning I thought it would deepen our understanding and strengthen our faith if we fixed our gaze on the Resurrection of Jesus as it was described by the Prophet Isaiah, 700 years before it happened. And here, in Isaiah 53, we will see the content and the confirmation of the Resurrection of Christ:

- ✓ Content because the precious meaning of it for our lives is opened to us.
- ✓ Confirmation because it was predicted 700 years before it happened.

So, let's go to Isaiah 53 and see the Prophecy that the "Servant of the Lord" (52:13; 53:11), the Messiah, would die and would rise again, and that this Death and Resurrection are both planned by God, and necessary. And as we look at this, keep in mind, it has to do with you here and now, and for the rest of your life and eternity. Because what becomes clear from this Chapter and from its fulfillment in the New Testament is that your sins can be forgiven, you can be declared righteous before God, and you can have eternal life with the risen Christ in everlasting joy.

So, first, let's notice that the promised "Servant of the Lord" was to die and why. The Death is made explicit in verses 8, 9, and 12:

8 By oppression and judgment He was taken away; And as for His generation, who considered That He was cut off out of the land of the living For the transgression of my people, to whom the stroke was due?

9 His grave was assigned with wicked men, Yet He was with a rich man in His death, Because He had done no violence, Nor was there any deceit in His mouth.

12 Therefore, I will allot Him a portion with the great, And He will divide the booty with the strong; Because He poured out Himself to death, And was numbered with the transgressors; Yet He Himself bore the sin of many, And interceded for the transgressors.

So, after verse 7 says He was led "like a lamb to the slaughter," verse 8 says that the slaughter was successful:

By oppression and judgment He was taken away; And as for His generation, who considered That He was cut off out of the land of the living For the transgression of my people, to whom the stroke was due?

... "taken away", "cut off out of the land of the living", this Man was killed. And His Death was an execution. His Death was not accidental. Then verse 9 makes the Death clear by referring to His burial:

His grave was assigned with wicked men, Yet He was with a rich man in His death, Because He had done no violence, Nor was there any deceit in His mouth.

But look also at verse 10:

But the Lord was pleased To crush Him, putting Him to grief...

So, this Death is not a historical accident. It is the Purpose and the Plan and the Pleasure of God. So, the Death of God's "Redeeming Servant" is predicted here clearly. One more confirmation from verse 12:

Therefore, I will allot Him a portion with the great, And He will divide the booty with the strong; Because He poured out Himself to death

Now, why did Jesus die? We are told no less than 10 different times in this single Chapter:

1. Verse 4: "Surely our griefs He Himself bore."
2. Verse 4: "... And our sorrows He carried."
3. Verse 5: "But He was pierced through for our transgressions."
4. Verse 5: "He was crushed for our iniquities."

5. Verse 5: "The chastening for our well-being fell upon Him."
6. Verse 5: "And by His scourging we are healed."
7. Verse 6: "The Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all."
8. Verse 8: "[He was] stricken for the transgression of my people."
9. Verse 11: "He will bear their iniquities."
10. Verse 12: "He bore the sin of many."

Now if you have ever asked, "What is the essence of Christianity? What's at the heart and center of it all?" Here is the answer. Let's use the words of verse 6:

All of us like sheep have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way;

... and this, "going astray" and this "turning to our own way", is called "Sin". Turning away from God and making ourselves our own master and our own treasure is the rebellion against God that is Sin. So, Sin is looking at the Glory of God in all its magnificence and saying, "No, thanks, I'd rather have something else." You simply cannot belittle God's Glory any more than that. You cannot insult God any more than that.

So, our sin insults God; our sin tramples on the Glory of God. And because God is Righteous, He must defend the Glory that has been offended by our sin. God's righteous Character compels God to adjudicate the horror of His Glory being insulted by the rebellion of Man. And that adjudication is the eternal Damnation of sinners in everlasting torment.

You see, if God didn't defend His Glory that has been belittled by our wickedness, God would be agreeing with us that His Glory was not worth defending. So, this eternal Damnation is certain because we are all guilty and it is eternal because the offense must be corrected.

Now God could have left it at that. He didn't have to do anything to rescue us from our plight. God was not obligated to forgive or save a single soul. And He would have remained perfectly Holy had He chosen to leave us in this terrible condition. But He didn't! Thank God, He didn't.

Before the foundation of the world, God chose to magnify the Glory of His Grace by rescuing unworthy sinners by what He alone would do for them. So, from ages past, God chose to send a "Suffering Servant", not mainly to give us an example of love for us, but to bear our sins as a Substitute for us. Verse 6 finishes by saying:

But the Lord has caused the iniquity of us all To fall on Him.

This is the very heart of Christianity. Jesus Christ came into the world to fulfill this Prophecy. Now He also fulfilled many other Prophecies, but this one is central and basic. Jesus came to die. And He came to die in our place. And He came to die for our sins. And this is our only hope. And the New Testament is all about just how this happened and how it affects our lives now and in the ages to come. And I beg you this morning to pursue after what the Bible teaches about these things with all your heart and all your mind.

But, what about the Resurrection? Let's look at the Resurrection of the redeeming, suffering "Servant of the Lord" in these words written 700 years before it happened. At least three times Isaiah tells us that the Sacrifice that this Servant made in dying results in a Resurrection triumph. Now he does not use the word "Resurrection," but the reality of the Resurrection is plain. Look again at verse 10:

But the Lord was pleased To crush Him, putting Him to grief; If He would render Himself as a guilt offering, He will see His offspring, He will prolong His days, And the good pleasure of the Lord will prosper in His hand.

Now look closely at what Isaiah said:

If He [Jesus] would render Himself as a guilt offering...

... three things will result from that:

1. He will see His offspring
2. He will prolong His days
3. And the good pleasure of the Lord will prosper in His hand

In other words, if Jesus dies for others as a "guilt offering" or as a perfect "Scapegoat" or as a Substitute:

1. He will live to see His offspring, which are those whom He has saved by dying for them.
2. He will live for a long time ("prolong his days"), which by implication, means, "forever", because once death is conquered it can't ever defeat you again.
3. God's great Purposes will triumph in His Hands

So, by dying as a Substitute, Jesus will conquer Death itself, not just for Himself, but for all that put their trust in Him. Romans 6:1-14 says:

1 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may increase?

2 May it never be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it?

3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?

4 Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

6 knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin;

7 for he who has died is freed from sin.

8 Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,

9 knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, is never to die again; death no longer is master over Him.

10 For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God.

11 Even so consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts,

13 and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.

14 For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

And then, according to The Revelation 5:5, this same Suffering Servant Who has died in our place and risen again will take the scroll of history and unroll it as the Lord of the Universe. So, this is a picture of the Messiah Who was dead and is alive forevermore, and Who is victorious forever as the Lord of all those who receive His Salvation.

Then Isaiah 53:11 says:

As a result of the anguish of His soul, He will see it and be satisfied; By His knowledge the Righteous One, My Servant, will justify the many, As He will bear their iniquities.

Again, we see that eternal Triumph comes from this Death and Resurrection in three ways:

1. He sees the fruit of His Death and is satisfied. And that means that He doesn't stay dead. He lives and is satisfied. His Work is complete, and He is glad. He is alive and satisfied.
2. He justifies many, everyone who trusts in Him, no matter how sinful they have been. If you trust in Jesus and all that Jesus has done, God Himself will declare you Just and Righteous, and He will forgive all of your sins. That is what "justify" means. A Christ Who dies but Who does not rise cannot justify anyone. Only a dead and risen Christ justifies.
3. "He will bear their iniquities." Yes, Jesus bore these iniquities when He died. But He goes on making intercession and bears them forever in the sense that as long as He lives; it is plain that His Death was utterly sufficient to pay for all our sins.

So, God is satisfied with Jesus, and the result of that is that wicked rebels are justified. And all our sins are carried by another forever. We will never bear our sins again! And if you have ever failed, if you have ever sinned, if you have ever committed wicked acts, that is the best News in all the world! And it only comes by believing in and trusting in a Savior, Jesus Christ, Who not only lived perfectly, but Who suffered fully and Who died completely and Who rose victoriously!

Finally, verse 12, God speaks:

Therefore, I will allot Him a portion with the great, And He will divide the booty with the strong; Because He poured out Himself to death, And was numbered with the transgressors; Yet He Himself bore the sin of many, And interceded for the transgressors.

Now look closely at exactly why God will give Jesus "a portion with the great, And He will divide the booty with the strong":

... Because He poured out Himself to death, And was numbered with the transgressors; Yet He Himself bore the sin of many...

This is the third Statement that the Resurrection existed because of the obedient Death for sinners that Jesus carried out. In other words, after Jesus pours out Himself to death, He then lives again! And He then divides the booty with the strong, as though His Death were a great Triumph in war with much booty.

Now, what this means is that the Resurrection of Jesus did not happen for His sake alone. It was for His sake! O, yes! And we would not have it any other way. Let Him be honored for His great Work of Salvation on the Cross! Verse 11:

He will see it and be satisfied

So, make no mistake about it, Jesus was raised from the dead for HIS Satisfaction. But what is the Son satisfied with? Verse 11 says, literally:

"He will see [it and] be satisfied."

Verse 10 says:

"He will see his offspring."

So, I conclude that part of Jesus' Satisfaction in the Resurrection is looking out on a great assembly of people from every race and tribe and language and nation who have trusted Him, and who have been forgiven and justified. And with tremendous Joy, Jesus walks among them now and in the ages to come, and in the words of verse 12:

a people "great" and "strong"

And Jesus divides the spoil of His Triumph with them all. Because this is what He loves to do. This is His Satisfaction. He delights to save. Jesus loves to bring people from death to life so they can enjoy His Majesty forever.

Now, I purposefully preached from a Passage that is not normally used to illustrate the Resurrection. And I had one goal in mind: If you can see the value and importance of the literal and physical and bodily Resurrection of Jesus from an obscure Old Testament Passage, how crystal clear is the Resurrection illustrated in the New Testament?

So, I ask you: Are you His? Have you trusted in Jesus and in His finished Work? Have you turned from your wicked ways? You can. You can belong to that "great and strong people", even though you feel utterly unworthy. That is the whole point of the Death of Jesus Christ. He died in our place. And all who trust Him as the Savior and Lord and Treasure of your life will be forgiven and justified and live forever with Him. And that amazing Work was forever sealed by the Resurrection. So, I beg you to run to Jesus for forgiveness and the Salvation of your soul.

Amen. Let's pray
