1) If God can orchestrate the _____ of the entire world to accomplish his plan, he can bring you through difficult situations, and help you overcome the things that drag you down.

2) If God has a plan, then there is _____ behind the universe. Everything he created exists for a _____.

3) A common characteristic of prophecy is that it is often _____ in more than one way.

4) Sometimes prophecy presents the Messiah

(or _____) as a conquering king, and at other times as a suffering servant. Both are _____.

5) In God's plan, things that have not yet happened are often described in past tense, as if they had already happened, because they are that _____. Fulfillment can be described as "_____."

6) As we live our lives in this time of "already/not yet," we _____ our faith on what has _____ happened, and we look forward with great hope and anticipation to what is yet to come.
