1) Like David, sometimes we're not _____

with what God has given us: _____.

2) Discipline, punishment, and consequences

are _____, but not the same:

Discipline looks to the _____ with the goal of producing better behavior.

Punishment produces suffering for something that is past.

It has a sense of _____.

Consequences are simple cause and effect, and may not have a _____ aspect to them at all.

3) God disciplines his people to produce spiritual growth,

_____ us into the image of Christ.

4) _____ children don't have to deal with discipline and consequences nearly as often as children who are out of control.

5) Don't think you'll get away with the _____.

God has a way of making things _____ in order to accomplish his purpose in your life.

6) If you want God's _____, live the way he tells you to live.
