

How does the resurrection of Jesus affect the Christian claim that he is uniquely qualified to save?

Can Christians acknowledge truth or moral goodness in other religions while still affirming the exclusivity of Christ? How should that shape our interactions with others?

Prayer Requests

September 27, 2026 - None But Jesus

Scripture References

Revelation 20:11-15 • 1 Corinthians 15:3-4
2 Corinthians 5:21 • Romans 1:18-29 • John 10:9; 14:6
Acts 4:12 • Psalms 46:10 • 1 Corinthians 11:23-26
2 Corinthians 12:8-10 • Psalms 37:3-7

- 1) People don't like it when Christianity claims that Jesus is the _____ to God.

- 2) In one sense, the statement that all roads lead to God is true:
all roads end at the _____ of God.

Grace Bible Church • Message by Dave Zierenberg
Video and notes available at www.gbcsl.com

- 3) Christianity is not based on teachings about how to behave;
it's built on the _____ of _____.
- 4) The _____ of Christianity is the death and resurrection of Christ.
- 5) The death and resurrection of Christ are more important than good _____ or _____ rules or becoming better people.
- 6) Some have said that God did not make us in his image;
instead, we have made god in _____ Often, that is _____.
- 7) The Bible doesn't recognize the idea of "my truth, your truth, their truth." The Bible speaks of "_____."
- 8) All of us are guilty of offences against others, and more importantly, offences against _____.

Small Group Discussion Questions

Please try to think these over and jot down some ideas prior to discussing them at the meeting, it will improve the discussion.

Read John 3:16–18. What do these verses teach about the necessity of belief in Christ?

The most common question about the exclusivity of Christ is, "What about those who have never heard about Jesus?" How does Romans 1:18-32 address this issue? How is God's justice described in verse 32?

Read 1 Timothy 2:1-6. What does this tell us about how we should think of those who do not believe in Christ?

Continued on reverse.