

Psalm 11:3 speaks of the foundations of society collapsing. Describe ways in which you see that as actually happening in our culture. How does that make you feel?

Describe the implications of the next verse, Psalm 11:4. How does that help us in light of verse 3?

Prayer Requests

November 3, 2024 • Psalms 11

Scripture References

Psalms 10:1; 13 • Psalm 137 • Psalm 30:4-5
Psalm 126 • Isaiah 8:11-13 • Psalm 11

- 1) The power of the book of Psalms comes from its wide range of _____ themes, its deep spirituality, and the way the images and metaphors of poetry speak to our hearts.
- 2) The Psalms help us know we are not alone - that God's people will face struggles in life, but God is always watching, and has _____ to act on our behalf.
- 3) Psalm 11 teaches us how we should respond to _____ in the world and in our nation.

Grace Bible Church • Message by Dave Zierenberg
Video and notes available at www.gbcsl.com

- 4) We must not be afraid of conspiracies or anything men may do. Instead, make the LORD of Heaven's Armies _____ in your life.
- 5) In the Old Testament, when we see "LORD" in uppercase, the Hebrew term is YHWH, meaning "I AM WHO I AM." It is the only _____ given for God.
- 6) Instead of looking for _____ through the temporary actions of humans, we should find our sense of safety primarily in God Himself.
- 7) The state of society is distressing because we look for _____ in the wrong place.
- 8) No one is overlooked in God's examination. God evaluates the _____ and the ones who are voting.
- 9) As Christians, we should be speaking _____ and _____, assuring others, especially other Christians, that we can trust in the LORD for protection.

Small Group Discussion Questions

Please try to think these over and jot down some ideas prior to discussing them at the meeting, it will improve the discussion.

Have you ever faced a time of difficulty when it seemed God was absent, that your prayers had no effect? How did things turn out? Share your story with the group.

Read Exodus 3:13-15. What are the implications of God describing himself as "I AM WHO I AM?" If your Bible has a footnote for that phrase, how does that shape your understanding?

Read Psalm 126. What images or ideas do you most closely relate to? Why?

Continued on reverse.