

What does Psalm 37 teach us about our priorities and values, particularly in relation to worldly success versus spiritual fulfillment?

Psalm 37 contrasts the fate of the wicked with that of the righteous. How does this distinction influence your perspective on justice and morality in today's world?

Prayer Requests

October 27, 2024 • Psalms 37 - Part 2

Scripture References

Psalms 37 • Matthew 28:18 • Romans 13:1-2
Psalms 24:1 • Mark 9:22-24 • Matthew 5:5 • Hebrews 10:14

- 1) In our divided culture, each side tends to see the other side as _____, but the commands of this psalm apply to both finger-pointing groups: “Don’t worry about the _____.”
- 2) It’s _____ and he has the authority to do what he wants with it, and he exercises his authority through Jesus.
- 3) The righteous will be _____ in tough times, but the wicked are on their own, with no promise of preservation.

Grace Bible Church • Message by Dave Zierenberg
Video and notes available at www.gbcsl.com

- 4) The godly can afford to be _____ because God is their supply. When you handle money in a godly way, God will trust you with more of it.
- 5) Our culture says, "follow your heart," but Jesus says, "_____." And when we do, God will direct your steps, and if you stumble, you will not fall.
- 6) If your faith is not _____ enough, then ask God for more – enough to overcome your fear and worry.
- 7) The godly give good advice, speaking from a clear understanding of right and wrong, based on living by _____.
- 8) The wicked plot, scheme, and accuse the godly, but God cares for his people day by day, and the schemes of the wicked will not _____.
- 9) Meekness is _____ under _____, shown in gentleness, kindness and humility.

Small Group Discussion Questions

Please try to think these over and jot down some ideas prior to discussing them at the meeting, it will improve the discussion.

Have you ever known a person who fits the description of meekness given in point 9? Describe that person to the group.

Read Matthew 28:18 and Romans 13:1-2. How should these verses influence our understanding of culture and society? How does it influence our understanding of current events or even world history if all authority is vested in God/Jesus?

Verse 25 states, "I have been young, and now am old." How can reflecting on our own life experiences help us understand the themes of this psalm better?

Continued on reverse.