

Read Exodus 14:13. Why was this a reasonable command for the people? How could they be expected to stay calm and unaffected in the situation they were facing? What can we learn from that?

God told Moses to divide the waters. When he obeyed the part he understood, God took over. Have you ever felt like God was asking you to do something that seemed impossible? How did that turn out?

Small Group Discussion Questions

Please try to think these over and jot down some ideas prior to discussing them at the meeting, it will improve the discussion.

Was there anything in this message that surprised you or raised a question in your mind?

Have you ever received an email that made outrageous claims about something? How did you know it wasn't true?

The Israelites were trapped between two significant dangers, the Egyptian army and the Red Sea. Have you ever experienced a situation where you could not see a way out, but then God came through at just the right time?

Can you think of any other miracles in the Bible that required someone to do something as a part of the miracle, almost to make the miracle possible? (Read Hebrews 11 for some ideas)
