A Prayer to Stop Strife in Its Tracks

Father, today I stand in the Name of Jesus, choosing to love, choosing to put envy and strife behind me. I don't want to give the enemy any place in my relationships.

Holy Spirit, when envy or strife arise, help me to identify it quickly and turn the situation around by living a life of thanksgiving and praise. Be my guide—so that I may live a blessed life!
Amen!

Stop strife before it starts. Walk in love and an attitude of thankfulness and watch God move on your behalf!
