

REVERE THE PAST

Back in 1953, with six hundred and fifty young families registered in St. Albert the Great parish, the need for a school arose. The response was to build.

The northern half of the present school was constructed. Monsignor William P. Long blessed eight classrooms on April 8, 1953. A temporary convent home was purchased at 8025 S. Linder on August 9th.

Three Adrian Dominican Sisters arrived on August 11th. The group was composed of Sister Eileen Patrick, Superior, and Sisters Albert Therese and Patrick Ann.

These were the first of many that followed.

The school opened its doors to 200 students on September 9, 1953 with the three sisters and a lay teacher, Nancy Murray.

Since that historical date, St. Albert the Great School has continued to serve the families of Burbank and the surrounding communities.
