Welcome from the President of Trinity International Theological Seminary

Ambrose E. Edebe, MA, MBA, D.Min., Ph.D.

I'm delighted that you are considering Trinity International Theological Seminary to further your theological education.

Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in His Great Commission said to His disciples, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." (Matthew 28:19- 20).

In order to preach and teach, testify and proclaim Jesus Christ, the Christian must be taught and trained in the Holy Scriptures. Theological education is about communicating God's Word in order to make disciples who shall be able to teach others also. Trinity International Theological Seminary has been fulfilling this command of our Lord.

Our Lord has a wonderful plan for your life. The glory of that plan is that God will, day-by-day, place the very people and experiences in your pathway that will insure you the maximum fulfillment of your potential in the attaining of His unique purpose for you. I believe that Trinity International Theological Seminary can be used by God to train you for future triumphs and personal gratification as you discover Christ's ever-unfolding will, is yours to enjoy.

Trinity has been on the cutting edge of Distance Education. We are recognized and applauded throughout the world for non-residency programs that offer the very highest levels of academic excellence. These programs can equip you to meet the intellectual challenges of your ministry as well as prepare you to make practical applications on a day-to-day basis.

Our faculty is comprised of some of America's very finest theologians, brilliant professors and faithful biblical scholars. They are individually committed to Christ with a warm heart, to students with a ready ear, and to academic achievement around the world. We are also extremely proud of our alumni. It is our conviction that these precious people are world-changers, and we sincerely hope and pray that you will let Trinity become your personal vehicle to academic confidence and spiritual maturity.

Training is vital! While no Bible school or seminary can make you a man or woman of God, you can certainly be trained as such. The man or woman who chooses a less than arduous road in the pursuit of ministry will ultimately find that others will attain loftier goals and have a greater sphere of influence because they spent the time and money necessary to make adequate preparation. Moreover, the modern minister is challenged by an antagonistic culture that prides itself in an ever increasing emphasis on educational achievement. For the aspiring minister to hold himself to a lesser standard places him in a significantly less than ideal position in his efforts to communicate the gospel to a secular society. You need a sound academic foundation.

I invite you to Trinity International Theological Seminary to study God's Word. We would be honored to help equip you for a Christian life and service to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

May our Lord bless you in your current ministry and in your plans for enrollment in a Seminary.

Sincerely, In Christ,

Dr. Ambrose E. Edebe,

President

Statement of Faith

What We Believe

- The Bible is the inspired Word of God.
- Our God is One, but manifested in three Persons-the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
- Man is a created being, made in the likeness and image of God, but through Adam's transgression and fall, sin came into the world.
- Salvation is the gift of God to man through faith in Jesus Christ.
- The New Birth is necessary to all men, and when experienced, produces eternal life.
- Baptism in water is by immersion, is a direct commandment of our Lord, and is for believers only.
- The Baptism in the Holy Ghost is a gift and is accompanied by the initial evidence of speaking in other tongues.
- We believe in sanctification, which is living a life of holiness.
- Healing is the privilege of every member of the Church today provided through Jesus' death on the Cross.
- Jesus will return and ". . . The dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air . . ." (1 Thess. 4:16-17)."
- The one who physically dies in his sins without accepting Christ is eternally lost and, therefore, has no further opportunity of hearing the Gospel or repenting.

THE SCRIPTURES-The Bible is the inspired Word of God, the product of holy men of old who spoke and wrote as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. The New Covenant, as recorded in the New Testament, we accept as our infallible guide in matters pertaining to conduct and doctrine (2 Tim. 3:16; 1 Thess. 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

THE GODHEAD-Our God is One, but manifested in three Persons-the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, being coequal (Deut. 6:4; Phil. 2:6). God the Father is greater than all; the Sender of the Word (Logos) and the Begetter (John 14:28; John 16:28; John 1:14). The Son is the Word flesh-covered, the One Begotten, and has existed with the Father from the beginning (John 1:1; John 1:18; John 1:14). The Holy Spirit proceeds forth from both the Father and the Son and is eternal (John 14:16; John 15:26).

MAN, HIS FALL AND REDEMPTION-Man is a created being, made in the likeness and image of God, but through Adam's transgression and fall, sin came into the world. The Bible says "...all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God," and "...There is none righteous, no, not one" (Rom. 3:10; 3:23). Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was manifested to undo the works of the devil and gave His life and shed His blood to redeem and restore man back to God (Rom. 5:14; 1 John 3:8).

Salvation is the gift of God to man, separate from works and the Law, and is made operative by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, producing works acceptable to God (Eph. 2:8-10).

ETERNAL LIFE AND THE NEW BIRTH-Man's first step toward salvation is godly sorrow that worketh repentance. The New Birth is necessary to all men, and when experienced, produces eternal life (2 Cor. 7:10; John 3:3-5; 1 John 5:12).

WATER BAPTISM-Baptism in water is by immersion, is a direct commandment of our Lord, and is for believers only. The ordinance is a symbol of the Christian's identification with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection (Matt. 28:19; Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12; Acts 8:36-39).

The following recommendation regarding the water baptismal formula is adopted; to wit: "On the confession of your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and by His authority, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen."

BAPTISM IN THE HOLY GHOST-The Baptism in the Holy Ghost and fire is a gift from God as promised by the Lord Jesus Christ to all believers in this dispensation and is received subsequent to the new birth. This experience is accompanied by the initial evidence of speaking in other tongues as the Holy Spirit Himself gives utterance (Matt. 3:11; John 14:16,17; Acts 1:8; Acts 2:38,39; Acts 19:1-7; Acts 2:1-4).

SANCTIFICATION-The Bible teaches that without holiness no man can see the Lord. We believe in the Doctrine of Sanctification as a definite, yet progressive work of grace, commencing at the time of regeneration and continuing until the consummation of salvation at Christ's return (Heb. 12:14; 1 Thess. 5:23; 2 Peter 3:18; 2 Cor. 3:18; Phil. 3:12-14; 1 Cor. 1:30).

DIVINE HEALING-Healing is for the physical ills of the human body and is wrought by the power of God through the prayer of faith, and by the laying on of hands. It is provided for in the atonement of Christ, and is the privilege of every member of the Church today (James 5:14,15; Mark 16:18; Isa. 53:4,5; Matt. 8:17; 1 Peter 2:24).

RESURRECTION OF THE JUST AND THE RETURN OF OUR LORD-The angels said to Jesus' disciples, "...This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." His coming is imminent. When He comes, "...The dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air..." (Acts 1:11; 1 Thess. 4:16,17).

Following the Tribulation, He shall return to earth as King of kings, and Lord of lords, and together with His saints, who shall be kings and priests, He shall reign a thousand years (Rev. 5:10; 20:6).

HELL AND ETERNAL RETRIBUTION-The one who physically dies in his sins without accepting Christ is hopelessly and eternally lost in the lake of fire and, therefore, has no further opportunity of hearing the Gospel or repenting. The lake of fire is literal. The terms "eternal" and "everlasting," used in describing the duration of the punishment of the damned in the lake of fire, carry the same thought and meaning of endless existence as used in denoting the duration of joy and ecstasy of saints in the Presence of God (Heb. 9:27; Rev. 19-20).

Vision/Mission/Values

Vision Statement: It is the vision of Trinity International Theological Seminary to impact eternity and the church presently by training biblically equipped leaders in both national and international settings.

Mission Statement: It is the mission of Trinity International Theological Seminary to meet potential students where they are in their calling and ministry motivations and to design a quality and affordable program of study that addresses their individual goals and needs.

Values Statements:

- We are committed to the local church and its ministry settings as the prime training venue for developing church leaders.
- We are not called to build great edifices to evidence our effectiveness, but to build great lives that impact others by the Living Christ.
- We do not call our students to come away to be trained, but to remain faithful in their present assignment.
- We commit ourselves to design innovative and personalized development plans that equip leaders to be dynamic and effective servants of God.
- Our extensions, whether in the U.S. or internationally, will be founded upon a partnership with a local church or group of churches and led by those currently involved in ministry and equipping the saints.
- The ultimate call of any leader is to equip the saints for the work of the ministry for the building up of the body of Christ. Only those proven committed and effective in this assignment shall be Trinity professors or leaders.

- Training and equipping is not optional for any spiritual leader, therefore we must do all within our ability to make training both accessible and affordable to any servant of God that is willing to make the commitment.
- Partnership, interdependence and networking are kingdom principles upon which we can see our Lord do His mighty work.

WHAT IS A SEMINARY?

What is a Seminary?

The word “seminary” developed from the Middle English term for a seed plot, a nursery in which to cultivate plants. Though we use the word today to denote a theological school, offering academic training in disciplines which prepare persons for ministry, the origins provide a helpful picture. A seminary is a place to cultivate and nurture people. A seminary provides the environment which facilitates growth and development so that the graduate will be mature in Christ and ready for the work of ministry which lies ahead.

Not only does a seminary invest in the lives of its students in order to equip a new generation of leaders and servants for the cause of Christ around the globe, but also affords the place in which to nurture ideas. A seminary is an ideal environment for research and enquiry into questions related to the theological and ministry disciplines, as well as reflection on the ways in which varied other disciplines can be integrated around Christian faith.

So what is a seminary? A seminary is a school, whose special focus is on teaching and research in the theological disciplines, such as Bible, Church History, Theology, Ethics, and Apologetics, as well as the disciplines of personal spiritual formation and practical ministry, such as counseling, preaching/communication, mission, Christian education, discipleship, leadership, worship, pastoral care, and campus ministry. The goal of seminary preparation is to bring students closer to God and to equip them to serve God in active ministry.

A seminary provides tools for the task of ministry.

Seminary equips you with the tools you’ll need in coming years to be able to serve God and minister for him. It’s painful to try to drive a nail into a board with the palm of your hand. You don’t have the right tool—you need a hammer, then it becomes easy and doesn’t hurt. Seminary is like that hammer.

Seminary provides you with the tools you need to do the job God is calling you to do. Seminary education equips you so that you will not be caught unprepared. A seminary education exposes the student to a broad sweep of disciplines and resources that will prove useful in ministering to others in contemporary culture. It lays a foundation of knowledge—about God’s Word, God, his working, our faith, and our responses—that the person serving God can draw on for years to come. Seminary also acquaints the student with practical issues of ministry with people, teaching and refining skills to impact the lives of others.

A seminary is far-reaching in its impact.

Like the pebble dropped into the pond, which causes waves to spread outward from the center, seminary is truly a Kingdom ministry. The seminary is an arm of the church that advances the reign of God (his kingdom) in this world, calling its own people to submit to his lordship and preparing them to lead others into relationship with the Creator. A seminary plays a significant role in the spread of the good news about Jesus Christ through a niche ministry of preparing leaders for the future. A seminary has a part in the greatest cause which will change the world in the final analysis. It is never easy to measure the impact of a people-oriented ministry such as this. How can you quantify the way in which God will use an individual over the next 50 years? Or measure the impact and influence of building redemptive relationships?

One seminary-trained person can be transformed spiritually within as a result of theological education. That in itself is worth the investment. That one person will then minister to hundreds, likely thousands, of other individuals. Multiply this by many persons in a seminary at the same time, many more over the years to come, and you can begin to get a sense that in ministry impact seminary education is one of the best ways for the church to invest resources and build for the future.

MORAL POLICY

Even though Trinity International Theological Seminary (TITS) is a distance education school, and as such, does not support a traditional resident campus, it is nonetheless a Christian ministry institution of higher learning. Therefore, you are expected to hold firmly to certain standards of conduct. At the core of those standards is the demonstration of the evidence of a Christian life both in the workplace and outside the workplace. Trinity International Theological Seminary's student behavior and lifestyles are expected to reflect the biblical standards of morality, integrity, and effective Christian witness.

Trinity is committed to a biblical world and social view; therefore, acts of immorality are inconsistent with biblical principles as well as a breach of the code of Christian conduct expected of every student. Acts of immorality include, but are not limited to, the following: adultery, fornication, the commission of homosexual acts, theft, pornography, drug or alcohol abuse, lying, child and/or spousal abuse, assault, battery, and murder.

Trinity has taken upon itself the serious prerogative of instructing others in matters of morality and Christ-like living through programs and courses offered. In order to maintain the credibility of our ministry and message, it is imperative that our students be accountable to a higher standard of conduct and faithfulness than would be expected in a secular environment.

As Scripture clearly indicates, individuals privileged to obtain a higher level of learning ought to be held to the highest standard of conduct, faithfulness, and character.

We consider ourselves bound to interpret actions or decisions inconsistent with a commitment to a Christian lifestyle and Scriptural teaching, as a violation of the core values of Trinity. Because the morality of our students and graduates has everything to do with the integrity of our public message, acts of immorality are a serious blight on the good name of Christ and the Church for which He shed His own blood.

The spiritual side of Trinity International Theological Seminary:

Learn to rightly divide the Word of Truth; recognize, follow and flow with the Holy Spirit; discover your destiny; be trained and equipped to fulfill God's call.

The practical side of Trinity International Theological Seminary:

Become a skilled laborer who is effective in the end-time harvest; practice what you've been taught so you are useful to God; grow in godly character and discipline, practical application in your local church. Trinity International Theological Seminary will ground you in the Word of God and equip you with the practical skills and spiritual disciplines, needed to be successful in life and ministry. Wherever your purpose takes you, Trinity International Theological Seminary will prepare you to live victoriously and minister effect.

Institutional Information

Legal Status

Trinity International Theological Seminary founded in 2013, is registered under the laws of the State of Maryland, USA.

It is affiliated with Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary, Newburgh, Indiana, USA, the pioneer in Theological Distance Learning, who for over four decades trained thousands and currently has thousands of students around the world. Trinity International Theological Seminary was established to train men and women of God and equip them with the tools necessary to be mature, productive and functioning parts of the Body of Christ.

Trinity is a multi-denominational educational institution designed to provide men and women the opportunity to study the Word of God, while improving professional skills. Committed to the on-going spiritual development of the maturing Christian, Trinity provides relevant courses and programs designed to enhance the life of the believer and the ministry being undertaken. Speaking from an evangelical position, Trinity proudly seeks to serve God, and the servants God calls, to learn more about Him through Trinity programs and services. It is not Trinity's purpose to license, ordain, credential, or otherwise act as a denomination or ordaining body. Trinity's goal is to provide high quality educational materials for motivated students desiring to improve and enhance their skills, their intellect, and their devotion to God.

Accreditation

Trinity International Theological Seminary was established for the purpose of providing biblical and theological training for students applying to this religious institution. Our mission is to prepare Christian leaders for Christian service.

There are a number of agencies that offer accreditation for programs, disciplines, schools and institutions for which there is no legal, regulatory or professional requirement. Such forms of accreditation are entirely voluntary and may be of greater or lesser significance according to national or cultural perceptions.

'Accreditation' is the predominant term used in the US system and is technically a voluntary process undertaken by private, non-governmental, non-profit organizations. In the US system, primary responsibility for higher education rests with states, not central government, and institutions must be authorized, licensed or exempt from approval by a state to operate.

The Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) has determined that the religious coursework offered by Trinity International Theological Seminary is exempt from MHEC approval in accordance with Code of Maryland Regulations (COMAR) 13B.01.01.03B(7) and (8), and MHEC Policies and Procedures. MHEC is the State of Maryland's higher education coordinating board responsible for establishing statewide policies for Maryland public and private colleges, universities, and for-profit career schools.

In order to guarantee academic and theological freedom, we are not affiliated (accredited) with any regional or national accrediting agency, and have operated successfully as a school of ministry since 2013. Since our objective is to prepare students for ministry in the church and other Christian applications, we are more concerned with our values, our mission and with pleasing God. The value of our programs can be seen in the quality of our curriculum, the qualifications of our faculty, and the knowledge, character and skills gained by our students. Trinity is committed to providing high-quality, biblically consistent, and ecclesiastically accountable academic and theological training in conformity with our doctrinal standards and our pledge to serve the church of our Lord Jesus Christ, by providing the very highest standards in training for its present and future pastors and teachers.

A Biblical or theological program from Trinity is designed to prepare a person for one basic task: MINISTRY. Our program represents a professional level of academic training in Bible and ministry related subjects. One who has earned this credential should be prepared for ministry in the church, para-church organizations, Christian schools, missionary endeavors, or any number of other ministry applications. Beyond all these ministry possibilities, a Trinity graduate should experience personal spiritual growth and the satisfaction of completing a rigorous Biblical or theological program of study.

Our purpose is clear; we do not seek to prepare our students for secular work. We will seek to provide a sound theological standing from which our students may build their life and an effective Christian ministry.

We have followed our commitment to train God's servants for service. It is common for us to hear graduates of Trinity note that the training they receive from Trinity far exceeds the training they receive in more traditional Bible institutes and seminaries. We are grateful for the sound reputation that we have built and will continue our commitment to train leaders for ministries of impact for the Body of Christ.

We have operated successfully as a Seminary, with students graduating and serving in a variety of areas including teaching, preaching, missions, and counseling. Trinity clearly understands the purpose of accreditation. However, as noted by the U.S Department of Education, and all U.S Department of Education recognized accreditors, accreditation is a voluntary process.

The following quote from the United States Department of Education makes the point. "It should be noted that some institutions have chosen not to participate in the federal student aid program and therefore do not have to be approved by an accrediting agency recognized by the Department. While these institutions do not appear on the Department's list, they may be legitimate schools. (February 1, 2005)

The former executive director of the Association for Biblical Higher Education (an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education), as quoted in that agency's September 2005 quarterly publication stated that "There are hundreds of Bible Colleges and Seminaries in the United States and Canada that are offering good solid theological training, yet they are not accredited."

For Trinity, and many other good schools that seek to serve the adult learner population, the true measure of the quality of an education, and the institution itself, is the extensive experience and credential of its faculty, the integrity of its courses and programs, and ultimately the ministry and professional achievements of its students and graduates. Trinity has provided access to Christian higher education to adult learner and has been blessed to have graduated learners who serve to further the cause of Christ all over the world.

We are not a school designed to educate and train young people whom we believe are best served by attending a traditional on-campus program where they can benefit from the personal and spiritual nurturing needed earlier in life. We are a Seminary specifically designed for men and women already serving in ministry, and the individual seeking ministry training later in life.

Therefore, our programs may be an ideal choice for those who:

- serve in Christian ministry, and desire to up-grade or improve their education;
- desire to enter Christian ministry, and serve through a church or ministry that does not require a certificate from a specific institution;
- serve through a para-church ministry;
- serve through a personal independent ministry;
- serve in a lay ministry capacity, and wish to be better educated;

- desire to be better educated in some area of ministerial study;
- are fiscally conservative or have limited financial resources.

In the interest of balance on the subject of accreditation, we offer the following statement by the Association of Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), a United States Department of Education recognized national accrediting agency president, Dr. Ralph E. Enlow, Jr.

"Why should you care about whether your studies are accredited? To be candid, accreditation does not always guarantee the quality or value of what you are studying. Some accredited institutions are of poor quality and some unaccredited educational institutions are of high quality. So accreditation is not the first and most important question to ask yourself about a course of study you are contemplating." Source: ABHE

Finally, we understand that in some circumstances, even for the older student, a certificate from an accredited institution is a necessity. However, if a certificate from a high quality and widely respected Seminary is what is really needed, then a certificate from Trinity may be an ideal option.

For additional information on accreditation, you can click on the following link which will take you to the U.S. Department of Education's accreditation statement. A quote from this page regarding the Database of Accredited Programs and Institutions is as follows, "The database does not include a number of postsecondary educational institutions and programs that elect not to seek accreditation but nevertheless may provide a quality postsecondary education. The U.S. Department of Education recommends that the database be used as one source of qualitative information and that additional sources of qualitative information be consulted." □

The Trinity Difference

Trinity strives to offer the best in correspondence or online study. Since Trinity is a loosely-structured school, we can take each student at his/her present level of education and formulate his/her course of study. Whether the student has much or little Bible background, the program will be set up to progress the student from his/her specific point of entry. Our very broad curriculum allows us to do this, thereby eliminating the possibility of the student's having to repeat courses that they have already taken. In other words, the student's program with Trinity will be tailor-made for his/her specific ministry.

At Trinity you will receive the Bible and theological training you desire. It's a theological education that can't be matched for the practical training and Bible study that you receive. Each of our professors must have at least a Master's degree from an approved seminary or university.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Trinity does not discriminate against any applicant/ student on grounds of age, religious preference, gender, race, color, ethnic/national origin, or physical disability.

A WORD ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF EARNING A CERTIFICATE - Certificate programs are the latest trend in adult higher education. To meet the rising demand, U.S. institutions of higher learning are expected to greatly increase the number of certificate programs currently offered. Not surprisingly, the value and prestige of earning a certificate is beginning to rival that of the associate degree, and in some cases even the baccalaureate degree. Certificates are an ideal way to gain competency quickly and less expensively. They are also considered a more reasonable stepping stone toward earning a degree if that is the ultimate goal.

Trinity International Theological Seminary having one of the lowest tuition does not mean that we have sacrificed on the quality of the education or the services to the students. Online Certificate in Church Leadership Program

Certificate in Church Leadership Program

For those who are interested in gaining knowledge as a Christian leader, the Certificate Program in Church Leadership is designed to move students from their entry point of study into a progression of in-depth studies. This leadership program is designed to help identify some of the most basic principles of church leadership. These characteristics should be found in all churches, but unfortunately, many of our church leaders lack true leadership skills. The lack of true leadership prevents the church from moving forward.

Most of our churches are not moving forward at all. They seem to be more self-centered and are totally ineffective in reaching others for Christ. They may have a great pastor, one who has the skill, charisma, and the drive to preach the gospel but lack the support or leadership needed from others to accomplish any vision or outreach in their community.

It is lazy and egotistical for any believer to think that the success or failure of any church should rest solely upon the shoulders of their pastor. The true measure of success or failure is in the hands of its leadership. What type of leaders does the church have? Do they have a vision? Does that vision match up to the one that the pastor has? Are the leaders willing to learn or are they bound by fears of inadequacy? We truly believe that everyone can learn a few basic skills that can make them more effective leaders.

So, what makes a good leader? This program tries to answer that question by examining some of the characteristics, qualities, and examples of what makes a good leader. Leaders provide direction. But unfortunately, too many of our churches have become poor examples of what Christianity is all about. Every church should have quality people: those who lead, encourage, and direct others to become even greater and more effective Christians.

People in every community are looking for something real and genuine. They want a real church with real people who really care! This leadership manual is designed to help your church leaders to understand the importance of true leadership and discover ways to make your church even more effective. We pray that this program will help you and your church to move forward in becoming a true and viable force in your community.

Are there any pre-requisites for my course?

None of the courses require you to have prior knowledge of the subject.

How is distance learning different from classroom-based courses?

- Studying by correspondence gives you greater flexibility. Trinity International Theological Seminary students have the ability to develop their own learning schedule around current commitments. Face-to-face based courses require students to attend class dictated by a formal timetable.
- Most classroom-based educators require a minimum class attendance rate of 80% in order for you to pass the course. As there are no classes to attend when you study via correspondence, you have the flexibility to go on holiday, study while you earn, start a family or simply manage your time more effectively around your commitments.
- There are no formalized timetables at Trinity, which means you can complete your course around full-time work. This eliminates any potential financial strain and gives you more time to spend with your family and friends. It also means you can complete your course in less time than similar courses at other classroom-based institutions.
- Studying with the Trinity International Theological Seminary means no classes to attend. This saves you time and money travelling to and from class and gives you greater freedom to decide when and where you want to study. Plus, you don't have the hassle of travelling to class on public transport or paying for parking.

Do I need to purchase textbooks?

No! All learning materials are contained in your course fees so you know what you are paying for when you register. There are no text books to purchase. You only need a Bible.
