THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 8, 2018

My Grace is enough for you.

The life of a prophet is not easy. Prophecy demands one go against the flow.

Jesus faces stubborn people in His fellow Nazarenes. They were either resentful or plain skeptical, they could not accept that a great prophet could possibly have come from among their number.

Paul realizes that the Power of God is stronger in difficulty than in success.

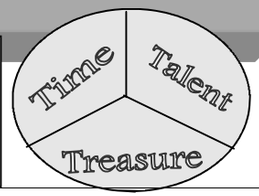
STEWARDSHIP: A Way of Life

Your Time, Talent and Treasure are God's Gifts to you.
When you share them, it is your gift to God



Stewardship Reflection

The First Reading from the prophet Ezekiel tells of how Ezekiel was called by God. The Lord speaks to him and says, "Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you." God knew He was not giving Ezekiel an easy task, but that is part of what being called by the Lord sometimes involves.

Being called is something to which we often make reference, as each of us is called in Baptism. St. Paul once wrote that we are "called to belong to Jesus Christ." The United States Bishops issued a document a few years ago titled Disciples Called to Witness. That is what we are all to do as baptized Catholics.

In that treatise the Bishops say, "To create a culture of witness, we must live explicit lives of discipleship. Being a disciple is a challenge. Fortunately, one does not become a disciple of Christ on his or her own initiative. The work of the Holy Spirit within the Christian community forms the person as a disciple of Christ."

God does not forsake us when we are called, just as He did not abandon Ezekiel. He is with us through the Holy Spirit to strengthen us and assist us. We must allow the Lord to help us. At the same time, we must strive to be disciples of the Lord. We are called to spread the light of the Gospel in everything we do.

SING WITH ATHENAEUM CHORALE

Are you interested in singing the great works of the Church in a beautiful space? Then consider joining the Athenaeum Chorale, a liturgical choral group that sings in the Seminary Chapel of St. Gregory the Great at the Athenaeum of Ohio. The Chorale season includes two Solemn Vespers liturgies and culminates in the beloved Advent Lessons & Carols ceremony in December, which always attracts a large crowd from the Cincinnati area and beyond. The Chorale itself is made up of diocesan church musicians, seminarians from Mount St. Mary's, and other exceptional singers from the Cincinnati area. Singing with the Chorale is a wonderful way to connect with fellow musicians and to participate in the rich liturgical life at the Athenaeum of Ohio.

Auditions will be held for all voice parts from August 1st through September 2nd. All singers over 18 years of age are welcome to audition For more information, or to schedule an audition, contact Dr. Mary Catherine Levri, Music Director of the Athenaeum Chorale, at mlevri@athenaeum.edu or (513) 233-6138. All auditions will be held by appointment at the Athenaeum of Ohio, 6616 Beechmont Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45230.
