Saint John

- a. One of the first chosen, John was called along with his brother James to be one of Jesus' twelve apostles who would accompany him on his ministry.
- b. John, along with his brother James, is portrayed in the gospels as perhaps being more important than most of the other apostles.
- c. Writer of five books of the New Testament, and a pillar in the early Christian church.
- d. Continually emphasizes that Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God, sent by the Father to take away the sins of the world.
- e. John teamed up with Peter to fearlessly preach the gospel in Jerusalem and suffered beatings and imprisonment for it.

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end.

For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end.

When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.

And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.
