

Rev. Dr. Donald Ray Pratt

Senior Pastor

Pastor Don is a native of Jasper Alabama, although he has lived in Florida for most of his life. He holds a B.A. degree from Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama and the M.Div and D.Min degrees from Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He has pastored churches in Kentucky, Florida and in Atlanta, Ga. Don is an Elder in the Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church.

His wife Cindy, a native Floridian, is also a graduate of Samford University and Southern Seminary. Cindy is an elementary school teacher, specializing in teaching Gifted Classes. They have three daughters and a son-in-law who live scattered across the globe; in Poland, Washington and Florida.

Don and Cindy enjoy cycling and exploring the outdoors. Since moving to Sebastian Don is also looking forward to dusting off the fly rod! Pastor Don is an avid reader and enjoys just about anything on the water. It is a privilege to serve with the great people of Sebastian United Methodist Church.
