Psalm 116

I love the Lord, who has heard my voice and my supplications, and has inclined his ear to me whenever I called.

The snares of death encompassed me; the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me; I suffered distress and anguish.

Then I called on the name of the Lord:

“O Lord, I beseech you, save my life!”

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; our God is merciful.

The Lord preserves the simple; when I was brought low, the Lord saved me.

Return, O my soul, to your rest;

For the Lord has dealt bountifully with you.

For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling;

I walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

I kept my faith, even when I said, “I am greatly afflicted.”

I said in my consternation, “All humans are a vain hope.”

What shall I return to the Lord for all my benefits?

I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord,

I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful ones.

O Lord, I am your servant; I am your servant, the child of your handmaid. You have loosed my bonds.

I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows to the Lord, in the presence of all his people,

In the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.
