

Rev. C. Alexis Talbott

Received her Bachelor of Arts at Florida Southern College and her Masters of Divinity at Drew Seminary, Madison, New Jersey.

Pastor Alexis grew up in the Baltimore Conference in Maryland and she considers her hometown, Essex, Maryland.

In 1979 her family moved to the Florida Conference. Pastor Alexis loves the work that God has invited her to join Him in.

She believes like C.S. Lewis that "Joy is a serious business in heaven." Her ultimate goal is being a part of creating an atmosphere of joy where Christians and those who are on the brink of making a decision to follow Christ through exciting and meaningful worship, honest study, hard work and play together.
