Psalm 102

But you, O Lord, are enthroned for ever; your name endures to all generations.

You will arise and have pity on Zion; it is the time to favor it; the appointed time has come.

For your servants hold its stones dear, and have pity on its dust.

The nations will fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth your glory.

For the Lord will build up Zion, and will appear in his glory;

The Lord will regard the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their prayer.

Let this be recorded for a generation to come, so that a people yet unborn may praise the Lord:

That the Lord looked down from his holy height, from heaven the Lord looked at the earth, to hear the groans of the prisoners, to set free those who were doomed to die; that the name of the Lord may be declared to Zion, and God’s praise in Jerusalem, when peoples and kingdoms gather together to worship the Lord.

The Lord has broken my strength in mid-course, and has shortened my days.

“O my God,” I say, “Do not take me away in the midst of my days, you whose years endure throughout all the generations!”

Of old you laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

They will perish, but you endure; they will all wear out like a garment.

You change them like raiment, and they pass away; but you are the same, and your years have no end.

The children of your servants shall dwell secure; their posterity shall be established before you.
