Opening Voluntary

Psalm 103:1-18

Bless the Lord, O my soul! And all that is within me, bless God's holy name!

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all God's benefits,

Who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

Who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

The Lord, who works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed, has made known God's ways to Moses, God's acts to the people of Israel.

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

The Lord will not always chide, nor harbor anger for ever.

The Lord does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is the Lord's steadfast love toward the faithful;

As far as the east is from the west, so far does the Lord remove our transgressions from us.

As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to the faithful.

For the Lord knows our frame, and remembers that we are dust.

As for mortals, their days are like grass; they flourish like a flower of the field; for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more.

But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon the faithful, and the righteousness of the Lord to children's children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.
