Psalm 30

I will extol you, O Lord, for you have lifted me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.

O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you healed me.

O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol,

Restored me to life from among those gone down to the pit.

Sing praises to the Lord, O his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

Surely the Lord’s anger is but for a moment; the Lord’s favor is for a lifetime.

Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

As for me, I said in my prosperity, “I shall never be moved.”

By your favor, O Lord, you had established me as a strong mountain;

You hid your face I was dismayed.

To you, O Lord, I cried, and to the Lord I made supplication:

“What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the pit?

Will the dust praise you? Will it tell of your faithfulness?

Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me! O Lord, be my helper!”

You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have loosed my sackcloth and girded me with gladness, that my soul may praise you and not be silent.

O Lord, my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

WE NEED YOU!

The response we received for submissions and positive comments to our Lenten devotional written by you was outstanding! Advent is just around the corner and we are asking you to again respond by writing our congregational Advent devotional guide. We will be focusing this Advent on different aspects of hope in the midst of despair. We are asking you to write on this theme. How have you experienced hope in Christ? How has Christ given you hope in times of despair? How has the hope Christ offers changed your life?

Devotions only need to be a paragraph long. Please also include a scripture verse and closing prayer. If you have any questions, let Megan know. Please send your devotion to Megan at meganmash@gmail.com or drop off at the office by Monday, November 23.
