Psalm 77

I cry aloud to God, aloud that God may hear me.

In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord, in the night my hand is stretched out continually; my soul refuses to be comforted. I think of God, and I moan; I meditate, and my spirit faints. You keep my eyelids from closing; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

I consider the days of old, and remember the years of long ago. I commune with my heart in the night; I meditate and search my spirit:

“Will the Lord spurn forever, and never again be favorable? Has his steadfast love ceased forever? Are his promises at an end for all time? Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his compassion?”

And I say, “It is my grief that the right hand of the Most High has changed.” I will call to mind the deeds of the Lord; I will remember your wonders of old.

I will meditate on all your work, and muse on your mighty deeds.

Your way, O God, is holy.

What god is great like our God?

You are the God who works wonders, you manifested your might among the peoples.

You redeemed with your arm your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

When the waters saw you, O God, when the waters saw you, they were afraid, the very deep trembled.

The clouds poured out water; the skies gave forth thunder; your arrows flashed on every side.

The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind; your lightnings illuminated the world;

The earth trembled and shook.

Your way was through the sea, your path through the great waters; yet your footprints were unseen.

You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

WE NEED YOU!

The response we received for submissions and positive comments to our Lenten devotional written by you was outstanding! Advent is just around the corner and we are asking you to again respond by writing our congregational Advent devotional guide. We will be focusing this Advent on different aspects of hope in the midst of despair. We are asking you to write on this theme. How have you experienced hope in Christ? How has Christ given you hope in times of despair? How has the hope Christ offers changed your life?

Devotions only need to be a paragraph long. Please also include a scripture verse and closing prayer. If you have any questions, let Megan know. Please send your devotion to Megan at meganmash@gmail.com or drop off at the office by Monday, November 23.
