

As I considered any final or closing words I wanted to share with you all to sum up the last four years of ministry, all I could come up with was thank you...

Thank you for the many ways you showed (and continue to show) God's love to one another and to those around us.

Thank you for warmly welcoming our family not only into this church, but into your lives as well.

Thank you for your willingness to go along with some of the crazy ideas I would have.

Thank you for allowing me to spend so much time ministering with those outside the walls of our church.

Thank you for helping our boys grow and mature in their faith and spirituality.

Thank you for allowing our boys to be themselves.

Thank you for your generosity to God and your neighbors.

Thank you for the work you made possible in Haiti.

Thank you for reaching out to the families at Tarsney Lake.

Thank you for your support and care during my dad's health issues and the loss of Sara's dad.

Thank you for the beautiful home you provided for us for the past four years.

Thank you for the grace you freely gave in times where I was in need.

Thank you for having me as your pastor for the past four years and being in ministry alongside me to an amazing God.

*May the God of peace,
who brought back the great shepherd of the sheep,
our Lord Jesus,
from the dead by the blood of the eternal covenant,
equip you with every good thing to do his will,
by developing in us what pleases him through Jesus Christ.
To him be the glory forever and always. Amen!*

Hebrews 13:20-21 (CEB)

Blessings,

Chris
