

Calling all men! It's about to happen! Catch Fire-2025. Join us for the revival of Beulah Retreat and Conference Center's (BRACC) Men's Retreat. An event for men to come together to learn, worship, and grow in their faith - for men who care about being good fathers, loving husbands, great friends - men of integrity who value relationships and serving God with their whole hearts. Join us for a time of incredible worship, spiritual growth, and discipleship as we focus on applying Biblical truth to everyday life

Catch Fire 2025

BRACC Men's Retreat

Catch Fire is about celebrating and building up men. If you have been longing for an authentic community that celebrates you, and nurtures your growth, you are at the right place, at the right time! Catch Fire 2025 invites men to come together, break barriers, embrace vulnerability, and uplift one another. Every aspect of your life, your ups and downs, your successes and failures are all ingredients God uses to make you the best version of yourself. Catch Fire and ignite the flame of faith in other brothers as you embark upon an experience that empowers and rejuvenates as you overcome barriers and tear down strongholds.

Retreat Topics

A Man and His Worship

Highlighting the unique practices and disciplines of a man's relationship with God – beyond ritual to deep devotion.

A Man and His Finances

Exploring the relationship between men and money, including how their attitudes towards money affect their financial success and biblical stewardship.

A Man and His Family

Stressing the importance of a man's influence in leading his household, teaching his children and providing for his family's physical, emotional, and spiritual wellbeing.

A Man and His Wholeness

Examining the impact of past emotional trauma, where significant events or experiences have left lasting psychological scars that influence his current behavior, relationships, and overall wellbeing.
