Dr. R. Neal Siler is a clinician and founder of The Healing Place Center for Counseling and Spiritual Formation. He is Pastor Emeritus of First Shiloh Baptist Church in Mechanicsville, VA, Adjunct Faculty at Tyndale University, Toronto, On, and The School of Theology at Virginia Union University, and the Executive Director of HCM's Spiritual Direction Program and EMK (Embracing the Mosaic Kingdom) Initiative in Ashland, OH. He has conducted numerous seminars and formational prayer events. He will be joined by an outstanding faculty of practitioners from the Healing Place Center for Counseling and Spiritual Formation: Dr. Sharon Siler, Dr. Proctor Beard, and Dr. Lisa Johnson. The focus of this session is on learning how to implement the protocols of formational care in a modality of life-changing care for hurting individuals. Special emphasis will be given to the unique applications of this model to the BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) context.

The Journey To Wholeness Seminar

Seminar Overview

The Journey to Wholeness Seminar will prepare clergy, counselors, family life counselors, lay counselors, spiritual directors and Christian educators to provide care and intervention to hurting individuals and families. The seminar focuses on the ministry of Formational Care, a healing care ministry pioneered by Dr. Terry Wardle. Formational Care is a ministry of the Holy Spirit, moving through a Christian caregiver, bringing the healing presence of Jesus into the place of pain and brokenness within a wounded person. Special applications of the Formational Care Model are included along with teaching, modeling, group experience special workshops, and skills development training.

Seminar Objectives

- Define formational care
- Define trauma and its impact
- Provide tools for addressing dysfunctional behaviors
- Develop sound techniques for emotional healing
- Discern the ministry of the Holy Spirit in healing
- Demonstrate pathways that help people dismantle destructive false beliefs
- Provide Biblical and theological foundations for inner healing
- Share principles of spiritual warfare and healing
- Equip caregivers for good self-care
- Teach steps for dealing with deep wounds sin, brokenness and the place of forgiveness
