

APOSTLE EVELYN M. BANSON

Leader of Leaders • Apostle to the Nations

Evelyn M. Banson was born in St. Thomas, U. S. Virgin Islands. She attended Florida A & M University in Tallahassee, Florida and obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Journalism in 1987. Before graduating from FAMU, she completed an internship in the office of Governor Bob Martinez. She has always had an interest in politics, therefore, upon graduation; she worked in the Capitol bureau of the Miami Herald Newspaper which mainly reports on political news in the State of Florida. In 1990, she moved back to the Virgin Islands and worked as a Public Relations Specialist for the Legislature. She was the liaison between 15 senators and the media. She traveled extensively on the behalf of the legislature and it was during that season that she developed a love for flight. It is her dream to obtain a pilot's license.

In 1993, she moved to Columbus, Ohio and attended World Harvest Bible College. While in school, she worked at World Harvest Church in 8 facets of that ministry, thus, obtaining training on how "Mega-Ministries" operate. Upon graduation, she traveled to Brazil as a missionary and shortly thereafter, she was off to Ghana, West Africa where she volunteered for seven months as an administrative missionary and was also trained in the art of prayer. As an Associate Pastor at All Nations Church in Columbus, Ohio, she supervised a staff of 5 and directed 25 ministries. Additionally, she was the Administrator of a Preaching Institute with 200 plus students. She has also served as an Associate Pastor at The Embassy Church in Atlanta, Georgia. Some of her duties at The Embassy were to assist the Senior Pastor by ministering in his absence, educate the new members concerning the ministry structure and train the leaders to flow with the Vision of the House.

In 1996, Apostle Banson founded Harvest Helpers International; a ministry designed to spread the love of Jesus to the world. Via its Ministerial Association, it ordains Clergy and Marketplace Professionals. The ministry allows people to be involved in Ministerial & philanthropic missions trips. The ministry also trains aspiring Politicians on how to debate, write speeches, advertise and market their platforms. In 2006, Apostle Banson formed Give International, a ministry which seeks to provide international disaster assistance, construct schools, hospitals, churches and orphanages.

In 2013, she became the owner of Cup-N-Kettle, the first tea house in the Virgin Islands. She offers consultation to Church leaders on church planting, spiritual support, church policy and implementation of the same. In 2016, she was ordained as an Apostle and has five thriving ministries under her covering on 4 Continents. She is on the Board of Shekinah Bible Training Institute as well as a guest lecturer. From 2015 - 2018 she was a member of a Taskforce on Youth Violence which was led by the Honorable Lt. Governor Osbert Potter. Additionally, she is a motivational speaker and public relations consultant. She has ghost written 9 books. She has traveled to 70 countries on 6 Continents for journalistic, ministerial and personal purposes.

She is married to Apostle Isaac Née Acquah Banson and they have three grown children. They flow together in ministry as one voice. Their love for God and the people around the world inspires them to be all that they was destined to be.

A Leader of Leaders

CELEBRATING ISAAC AND EVELYN BANSON!

We are thrilled to join you in celebrating your remarkable achievements. You are a wonderful couple who have dedicated your lives to the Lord and His service.

Isaac, we commend you for your ordination as an Apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ: We pray that you will be filled with the Holy Spirit and wisdom as you worship, pray, lead, teach, and shepherd God's people. We respect you as a man of God, a visionary worshipper, intercessor and a servant leader.

Evelyn, we congratulate you for your Honorary Doctorate degree and being awarded as an interactional Leading Lady. We appreciate your hard work, knowledge, and excellence in serving locally at Global Life Church and internationally to the people of God. You are an inspiration, a teacher, prophetess and friend to many.

We love you both and we are happy for you. May the Lord reward you richly and use you powerfully for His kingdom in all dimensions for His Glory.
