Subject: 2023 Deacon & Minister's Council: Official Attire

November 10, 2023

To the Members of the ACOJ Ministerial Alliance,

Greetings to all. I pray that this communication finds everyone in good health and spirits. I would like to bring your attention to our upcoming official day, Saturday, December 2nd, during the Deacon and Ministers Council. On this special occasion, it is imperative that we all adhere to the official attire guidelines outlined below:

- 1. Mothers and Missionaries: All Mothers and Missionaries, with the exception of titled ministers, are kindly requested to wear white attire.
- 2. Licensed Ministers: License Ministers are expected to be in their Civic Wear, which includes a Black Suit, White Shirt/Blouse, and a Red Tie/Bow.
- 3. Ordained Elders: Ordained Elders should wear a Black Suit, Black Shirt, and a White Full Collar.
- 4. Pastors: If you possess Liturgy Garments, please wear them, which includes a Black Cassock, a Rochet in white, with accents related to the Chimere (vest) in black, and a Tippet (scarf) in black. If you do not have Liturgy Garments, please wear a Black Suit, Black Shirt, and a White Full Collar.
- 5. Executive Board (Full Liturgical Garments): If you are a member of the Executive Board and have any questions regarding attire, please follow up with Bishop Hunt. However, your original garments will suffice. The standard attire includes a Black Cassock, a Rochet in white, with accents related to the Chimere (vest) in red, and a Tippet (scarf) in black.
- 6. Auxiliary Bishops and Bishops Elect: Auxiliary Bishops and Bishops Elect should wear a Black Cassock, a Rochet in white, with accents related to the Chimere (vest) in Royal/Roman Purple, and a Tippet (scarf) in Royal/Roman Purple.
- 7. Emeritus Apostle: For Emeritus Apostles, the attire should consist of a Black Cassock, a Rochet in white, with accents related to the Chimere (vest) in Royal/Roman Purple, and a Tippet (scarf) in either Royal/Roman Purple or Black.

Additionally, please be aware that in the month of March, at the ACOJ Nehemiah Rally, the official garments of the Apostolic Church of Jesus will be unveiled.

We are genuinely excited about the upcoming Annual Deacon and Minister Council, and we eagerly anticipate seeing each and every one of you at this important gathering.

Sincerely,

Apostle Dr. Alex L. Jenkins, Sr. On behalf of our Chief Apostle, Dr. Preston Rolle, Sr.
